WEEKEND REVIEW

Champions Chelmsford City remain ten points clear of the pack despite their defeat at Hendon. AFC Wimbledon are five points up on Staines Town, who still have two games in hand, but now have to win both to overtake the Dons. They are both guaranteed playoff spots, while AFC Hornchurch need two points from three games to make mathematically certain of the third one.

As for the last spot, 11th-placed Billericay Town are five points below Tonbridge Angels – the current incumbents, so they are not quite out of it. Hendon, Ramsgate, Ashford Town (Middlesex), Margate and Horsham are all within three points of the Angels, so this one won't be decided until the last weekend of the season.

At the bottom, East Thurrock's point-deduction from December is looming large because they now need to win their last two (or expect a goal-difference miracle) to move out of the bottom four. Folkestone Invicta and Carshalton Athletic, both have games in hand on the team above them and, incredibly Harrow Borough are not quite out of danger in 12th place, though their 52 points should be enough, only because they have two more than Hastings United, and three more than all of Harlow Town, Heybridge Swifts, Boreham Wood and Maidstone United. Wealdstone are back in the danger zone as they are just two points clear of the drop zone.

In Division One North, Dartford can't quite crack open the champagne, but they are six points clear of AFC Sudbury, with Redbridge a further half-dozen points further behind. AFC Sudbury are guaranteed a playoff spot, but as the gap between Redbridge and the next five teams – Ware, Canvey Island, Bury Town, Brentwood Town and Edgware Town – however, is just three points, the other three places are far from confirmed.

At the bottom, nothing is decided either with Ilford climbing off the bottom with a victory over Wingate & Finchley, who are nonetheless safe, unless the Foxes can overturn a 25-goal deficit in the goal difference column. Waltham Forest and Tilbury cannot breathe easily as they sit just two points ahead of basement-dwellers Wivenhoe Town and one of Ilford.

Division One South is more clear cut, though not much. Dover Athletic are champions and Molesey and Horsham YMCA are guaranteed to be the bottom two.

Tooting & Mitcham United and Cray Wanderers are both certain to appear in the playoffs, with Metropolitan Police and Worthing favourites to join them. The Blues and Rebels are four and three points, respectively, clear of Kingstonian in sixth place, and they also have vastly better goal differences than the Ks. Dulwich are not mathematically eliminated, but it will need a near miracle for them to reach fifth place.

The three hat-trick heroes over the weekend were: AFC Wimbledon's Robin Shroot as the Dons saw off Ashford Town (Middlesex) 4–1 at Short Lane; Tom Hutchings of Leatherhead in their 4–1 defeat of Eastbourne Town at Fetcham Grove; and Ben Johnson of Worthing in Friday night's 5–1 win over Corinthian-Casuals at Woodside Road. The biggest crowd of the weekend was at Dartford, where more than 1,300 saw Tilbury crushed 5–0 by the Division North championship favourites.

Premier Division

Hendon upset champions Chelmsford City at Claremont Road, coming from a goal down to win 2–1. Ollie Berquez netted for the visitors and Davis Haule grabbed both for the Greens to keep alive their playoff hopes. AFC Wimbledon were pegged back at Short Lane before seeing off Ashford Town (Middlesex) 4–1. Robin Shroot's opener was cancelled out by Warren Harris before ten minutes had elapsed, but Shroot completed his hat-trick and Romone Rose added a fourth near the end.

Staines Town had Elliot Onochie to thank for the only goal at Harlow Town, while it was Mo Takalobighashi who did likewise for Maidstone United at Harrow Borough and a Sam Adams penalty for Hastings United provided a third 1–0 away win (this one at Carshalton Athletic) of the day. Simon Parker also netted an only goal but his was at Bridge Avenue as AFC Hornchurch held off Wealdstone.

Heybridge Swifts returned Boreham Wood to the relegation dogfight with a 4–1 victory at Scraley Road, Sean Marks, completing his double, George Lay and Dave Wareham scoring after Leon Archer had tied things up. Margate were shocked to go two goals down at Leyton, where Daniel Lodge and Marvin McCoy were on target. But James Pinnock, twice, Jimmy Jackson and Ryan Peters all scored as the Gate won 4–2. A goal from Sam Jones, nine minutes from time gave Ramsgate maximum points against Horsham. A Ben Laslett own goal gave the Hornets a lead, only for Jones to equalise. Warren Shulz then put the Rams on top, but Eddie French made it 2–2 a minute before half-time.

The other two matches ended in draws, 1–1 at Folkestone Invicta, where James Everitt equalised in the last minute to deny East Thurrock United the win. Ross Wareham had given the Rocks the lead after 36 minutes. And, at New Lodge, Billericay Town trailed Tonbridge Angels, thanks to first-half goals from Carl Rook and Tommy Tyne. However, Lee Hodges and Bradley Wood-Garness were on target for Billericay after the break.

Division One North

In Division One North, leaders Dartford led the way in the goalscoring stakes, hitting five without reply against Tilbury. Eddie McClements, Jay May, 2, and Jamie Coyle, also 2, were the marksmen.

Ilford's resurgence continued with a 3–1 win over Wingate & Finchley at Cricklefield Stadium. Ben Jones opened the scoring after 40 minutes, only for Dean Nyman to restore parity two minutes later. In the second half Thomas Laxton and Paul Olima netted for the Foxes. Ware also struck three times as they beat Great Wakering Rovers at Wodson Park. Danny Spendlove and Joe Stevens made it 2–0 before Martin Tuohy pulled one back for Rovers. But John Frendo ensured the points would stay in Hertfordshire with a third goal 11 minutes from time.

The top of the table clash between AFC Sudbury and Edgware Town went the way of the home team with David Head scoring the only goal after 49 minutes. Single goals were also enough for Enfield Town and Canvey Island to win at Arlesey Town and at home to Wivenhoe Town, respectively. Ricci Crace was Enfield's scorer, Colin Wall for the Gulls. Two Cody McDonald goals brought Witham Town all three points from their visit to Aveley, this after Ben Bradbury had given the hosts the lead after seven minutes.

Joao Carlos and Sean Thomas scored for Brentwood Town as they beat Maldon Town 2–1. Kevin Hawes grabbed a late consolation for Maldon. At Witham, Waltham Forest went down 2–0 to Bury Town, Les Reed and Danny Cornwell scoring in the last 17 minutes. The prolific Sean Sonner was on the scoresheet for Northwood again, converting a penalty to add to Matt Baxter's earlier strike. Lee Townrow pulled a goal back for Redbridge but it was too little, too late. And at Capershots, San Adejokun scored after ten and 88 minutes to give Potters Bar Town a 2–1 win over Waltham Abbey, for whom Marc Sontag had equalised midway through the second half.

Division One South

In Division Two South, only eight matches were completed on Saturday. Worthing were 5–1 winners over Corinthian–Casuals at Woodside Road on Friday night, Ben Johnson grabbing a hat-trick, and Andy Alexander and Mark Pulling also scoring. The Rebels also tallied for the visitors Joe Keehan putting through his own goal.

Tooting & Mitcham United took over in second place after beating the incumbent Cray Wanderers 2–0 at Imperial Fields. Carl Hutchings and Paul Vines, after 13 and 89 minutes, were the goalscorers. Whyteleaf raced into a 2–0 lead at Walton & Hersham with a pair of Sean Rivers strikes inside 11 minutes. But Jon Neal, Julien Thompson, Rob George, twice, and Jack Watkins hit back for the Swans, who won 5–2.

Leatherhead's Tom Hutchings was another hat-trick man in a comeback victory. Gary Brockwell had given Eastbourne Town an early lead at Fetcham Grove but Hutchings got three and Nathan Ayling another as the Tanners ran out 4–1 winners. Solitary goal victories were again commonplace in this division. Charlie Taylor, for Dulwich Hamlet at Burgess Hill Town, James Dryden, for Dover Athletic at Metropolitan Police, and Neil Lampton, in the last minute for Kingstonian at home to Croydon Athletic, were their respective teams' goalscoring heroes. Chris Kiganda scored in the final couple of minutes to give Walton Casuals a 2–1 win at Chipstead. John Ambridge had opened the scoring for the visitors before Aaron Cole-Bolt equalised.

Sittingbourne also left it late to overcome Chatham Town in the Kent derby. Steve Hafner gave Chatham the lead after 14 minutes, only for Bradley Spice to make it 1–1 four minutes later. Unfortunately the weather intervened to cause both the Whitstable Town v Ashford Town and Horsham YMCA v Molesey clashes to be abandoned – and both were called off at the interval. There had been no score in Kent, but in the battle of the bottom two at Horsham, Molesey were leading 3–1 when the referee called a halt.

Youth League

Seven matches in the Ryman Youth League, with the main surprise being the win by Burgess Hill Town 3-2 at AFC Wimbledon on Thursday evening – Blundell scoring a hat-trick for the visitors.

On the same evening, Leatherhead maintained top place with a good 2-1 win against the strong Staines Town team, now in fourth place as a result of their 5-0 win earlier in the week at Horsham YMCA, where Enos Rodger scored a hat-trick.

Sitting behind Leatherhead in second place are Kingstonian, 2-0 winners at Carshalton Athletic on Monday evening, whilst third placed Croydon Athletic kept the pressure on with a sound 3-0 win at home to Tooting & Mitcham United.

On Monday evening, Horsham beat Burgess Hill Town 3-0, whilst on Wednesday evening Maidstone United rattled in five without reply against visitors Carshalton Athletic.

NOTIFICATION OF PLAY-OFF SEMI-FINAL AND FINAL MATCH OFFICIALS

DONS OVERPOWER CORINTHIAN-CASUALS

Corinthian-Casuals 1, AFC Wimbledon 8

(by David Ballheimer)

The Football Association's generous gesture to Corinthian-Casuals – for allowing Wembley to take the names of Corinthians and Casuals for banqueting suites – to play a friendly at the new Wembley Stadium was taken up on Sunday afternoon.

Corinthian-Casuals chose AFC Wimbledon to be their opponents, guaranteeing a good turnout despite the capricious April weather and the attraction of the London Marathon.

After three minutes, the Dons' Jon Main was set up by Steve Ferguson, but Colin Harris made a good save. Three minutes later the goalkeeper was left helpless as Marcus Gayle, who played in the Premier League for old Wimbledon club, powered home a header from a Jay Goodall cross.

Sam Hatton and Tony Finn could have extended the Dons lead before Casuals' Tyrone Myton forced Jake Pullen into a save. The Dons were enjoying the wide open space out on the wings and a number of crosses proved dangerous. In the 16th minute, Finn crossed and Hatton flew in to head home number two.

That was the end of the first half scoring, but Corinthian-Casuals did have a goal disallowed when Russell Banyard slid a Tyrone Myton cross into the net. Unfortunately, an offside decision against Luke Gay in the build-up caused the goal to be chalked off.

In the second half, AFC Wimbledon changed pretty much every player and this team felt it had more to prove judging by the way they scored six times in 18 minutes. Lewis Cumbers took advantage of some poor defending to score after 55 and 57 minutes.

Elliot Buchanan followed with number five four minutes later and, within 120 seconds, had set up Robin Shroot with the next goal. Karl Beckford converted a cross from Simon Bassey before Buchanan ran 50 metres and scored from an acute angle to make it 8–0. In the 75th minute, Mario Rajakone, the winner of AFC Wimbledon's raffle to play, came on a substitute and he played for the final 15 minutes, a thrill he will never forget.

Three minutes later, the loudest cheer of the afternoon came when Hinga Amara fired past Elliot Ransome to give Corinthian-Casuals a consolation goal. Unfortunately the student from Sierra Leone suffered an injury a couple of minutes later and limped off. Then, in the 84th minute, Corinthian Casuals almost scored again when Mark Thomson rattled the AFC Wimbledon crossbar.

Corinthian-Casuals manager Brian Adamson said, "I could not have wished for anything better than leading my team out a Wembley Stadium. We played on Friday night and by the end of the game today, the players were out on their feet.

"We didn't come here for a result, but I was a little disappointed at the final score. I know this was a friendly, but I don't think any game is ever a friendly."

Terry Brown, AFC Wimbledon manager said, "I had never been involved in a game at the old Wembley. I got to a couple of semi-finals, but that was as close as I got, so it was really nice to be here. It was a unique occasion and it whets the appetite to it properly if you know what I mean.

"Corinthian-Casuals were very kind to invite us to play in this game and we are very grateful to them for this gesture. Jason Goodliffe has a slight thigh strain, but he deserved to play here today, so we gave him ten minutes. He has been absolutely vital to our season. We have a big enough squad so that we could name a different team in each half, so that is what we did."

CLUB GOSSIP

BILLERICAY TOWN FC

If things had worked out differently, Chris Whelpdale would have been preparing for life in the classroom rather than for life in League One. The 21 year-old was rescued from a career in teaching when Posh came knocking on his door. It was the start of an incredible 12 months for Whelpdale which the winger described as 'a dream come true.'

Twelve months ago he was training twice a week and playing on Saturdays for Billericay in the Ryman Premier League. Now he's achieved his boyhood ambition of becoming a professional footballer and is looking to celebrate his first full season with a Championship winning medal.

Whelpdale said: "It's been an amazing year, a real dream come true. I was studying sports science with the aim of becoming a PE teacher when I was scouted by Peterborough. I was training at Billericay on Tuesday and Thursday nights so the difference in my life in just 12 months is stark. It's not just the fact that I'm now a professional footballer, but the fact that I'm part of a team that's been so successful."

Whelpdale has been involved in 35 Posh matches this season contributing three goals including the equaliser in the big game at title rivals MK Dons last month.

Whelpdale added: "Scoring a goal in such a big game in front of a crowd that size was a great moment especially as I gave one of my best performances that night."

BRENTWOOD TOWN FC

A rallying cry has been issued to the people of Brentwood to be their local football team's 12th man as they target the Ryman League Division One North play-offs.

Brentwood Town play two of their remaining three games at the Brentwood Arena in Doddinghurst Road and chairman Keith Woodcock has asked locals to show their support by passing through the club's turnstiles.

Both home games are against teams also hoping to make the play-offs, with Maldon Town visiting this weekend for an Essex derby, while Redbridge make the trip to the Arena for the final game of the season on 26th April.

Woodcock told the Gazette: "I would ask them to come across, have a look and see what we're about. It would be fantastic for two reasons. The more money we can generate, the more the club can move on and also the players do respond to playing in front of a nice big crowd. There's no doubt our best result of the season has been at Dartford and that proves what we can do when we have a large crowd."

The Blues ripped up the formbook in that game beating the table-topping side 1-0 in front of a 1,300 plus crowd, surprising their rival teams.

CHELMSFORD CITY FC

The Champagne corks have long been popping at the Melbourne Stadium because Chelmsford City are Ryman League Premier Division champions! A point from their 1-1 draw at home to Ramsgate last Saturday was enough to secure their first ever promotion to Conference level in their 70 years as a professional club.

And the success more than makes up for the supporters' heartbreak of losing out in last season's play-off semi-final against Billericay Town.

Manager Jeff King said he was delighted for the players and fans to win the title by points and not goal difference. He declared: "We've won it and I think we deserve to as we have been consistent over the whole season. The players have worked hard and so has everybody else and the reward is promotion to the Blue Square South."

City will be presented with the championship trophy at their next home game against Harrow Borough on 19th April by League Chairman Alan Turvey.

DOVER ATHLETIC FC

Jim Parmenter says Dover Athletic and Andy Hessenthaler fit like a boxing glove – and that ultimately delivered a knockout blow to the club's Ryman League One South rivals.

Whites finally won the 2007-08 contest in the 39th round of matches when Jimmy Dryden delivered the final punch. The referee stopped the fight – challengers Tooting and Cray could not get back off the canvas.

The next bout is the Ryman Premier Championship and Jim is predicting a box office hit with heavyweights AFC Wimbledon, Maidstone, Dartford and Folkestone all potentially lining up in the ring alongside Whites, Tonbridge, Margate and Ramsgate.

He said: "Fans are hopefully going to see some great local derbies. It'll almost be like being in the Conference in terms of some of the big attendance figures we can expect.

"I sincerely hope Folkestone and Maidstone stay up – and Dartford win promotion from Ryman North – because it will make for a mouth-watering season, something we're all excited about."

Dover Athletic will be presented with the Division One South championship trophy at their next home game against Sittingbourne on 19th April.

EASTBOURNE TOWN FC

The return of defender Ben Putland has been a key factor in Eastbourne Town's Ryman League Division One South survival this season. The 22-year-old defender looks to have turned his career around following a drugs related suspension from the club three years' ago.

Speaking before Saturday's trip to Leatherhead he said, "I am very pleased with my achievements so far. I set myself a high standard at the start of the season and I want to continue that way. The team is playing well for the moment and now we are out of the relegation zone. Ady has done a brilliant job with us guys."

Looking to next season, Putland is expecting great things. "At the start of this season, being newly promoted, it was all about staying up. Now, with an improved ground and the squad that has taken us here, we can hopefully go on to aim higher next year."

Outside of the football pitch Putland is attending his second year at University of Greenwich, studying sport and PE. "It is very interesting and I truly enjoy it. But there is a lot of hard work," he said. Living and studying in London means long journeys to play for Eastbourne Town.

He explained, "I attend as many practices as I can but obviously being at Uni means I can't be there that much. I come down sometimes and especially at holidays when I am off from Uni. I play all the matches though. Most of our away games are played in and around London, and that makes it easy for me."

Boss Ady Colwell added, "When you are in the trenches Ben Putland is the type of player you want alongside you. He is as brave as they come and he will put his head and foot in where others would not dare. During the second half of the season his game really came on and he is a valuable member of our squad.

HENDON FC

Brothers in arms (by David Ballheimer)

Hendon Football Club have long had a reputation for being a family club. Among supporters, three generations of the same family have married fellow Hendon fans, but, on the pitch, they're trying to keep it in the same generation this season. Coach Bontcho Guentchev has played on the same pitch as his two sons, but this was only in a preseason friendly. The two boys, however, Lubomir and Iavor, have been regular names on the team-sheet with the older boy, Lubo, making almost 40 appearances this season. Last season, in the finale at home to Margate, both Bontcho and Iavor played together for the last few minutes and the son almost set up his father for a goal.

But they are not the only brothers and teammates at Hendon. Davis and Brian Haule have well in excess of 200 appearances between them after they both returned to Claremont Road for second spells in 2006–07. James Burgess passed 200 appearances for the Greens earlier this season, more than 100 more than his brother and ex-teammate Mark (they have first-team 322 appearances between them and Mark's FA Cup goal against Biggleswade United – the less than vital last in a 6–0 victory – is the only one they have mustered between them).

Last week, on transfer/signing deadline day, Hendon added Jack Page to their squad. He is the younger brother of centre-half Sam, who joined the club permanently from MK Dons earlier this season after two loan spells.

On Saturday 5 April in Hendon's Ryman League Premier Division match at Hastings United, Jack Page, Brian Haule and Iavor Guentchev, the younger brothers of Sam Page, Davis Haule and Lubomir Guentchev, were all named as substitutes. Jack and Brian were both used (the former replaced Haule Senior), while Iavor could not be used following an enforced change by Hendon early in the first half. And it was two of the three elder brothers who were Hendon's goalscoring heroes in the 4–3 victory, Davis netting a hat-trick and Lubo a spectacular late winner.

POTTERS BAR TOWN FC

A record 335 people attended Parkfield last weekend to see Potters Bar Town draw 2-2 with league leaders Dartford. It was the biggest official attendance for a league or cup game at the ground in the club's history. The highest gate the Scholars have ever had was when several thousand watched an EastEnders XI play in a charity game.

The majority of the fans for the Ryman League clash on Saturday came from the Kent club, who attract more than 1,000 spectators to their home matches at the Princes Park Stadium. The highest previous gate at the Potters Bar ground in the league this season came on Boxing Day when 151 turned out for the encounter with local rivals Enfield Town.

Bar chairman Peter Waller said: "It's something Dartford get every week. It's good so many people want to watch this level of football. Before the game they said they expected between 300 and 500 people to come and watch. It would have been nice for it to have been nearer 500, but it's great to get that number at our level."

The crowd, several hundred more than a regular home attendance, was a welcome boost to the club's finances. But it is unlikely Dartford will visit Potters Bar next season. "It looks like they will go up, so unfortunately we won't get that again next year," added Waller.

Of course the chairman would like to see his club attract more fans from the area to Parkfield. "All we can do is keep trying to attract more people to the club," he said. "I'm sure there's people interested in football in Potters Bar. I don't know if the people of the town know we are here? We need to publicise the club more."

WARE FC

WARE manager Glen Alzapiedi is looking forward to next week's Herts Senior Cup final - but maintains the league is his top priority. The Wodson Park club are set to take on Boreham Wood in the final on Tuesday evening at Letchworth's County Ground.

Whilst Alzapiedi is pleased to have made the final, his main aim is on securing a play-off place in the Ryman League Division One North. "The cup final is a positive distraction, but we have a league game to concentrate on this Saturday, and our focus has to be on getting three points there and then we can look towards Tuesday night," said the Blues' boss.

Ware have stuttered in recent weeks in the league, and their once comfortable play-off position is being challenged by as many as three teams who all feel they have a chance of snatching that final spot. Despite only one Ryman League win in the last four, Alzapiedi remains upbeat going into a crucial period.

"To be fair, we have been playing quite well without creating too much and scoring. Now we have Chris Ellerbeck back fit, it will give us more of an option," he said. "Chris hit the post on Saturday and looked good. I think if that had gone in we would have gone on to win the game. I will want an improvement in the final three league games, and hopefully we can get back to scoring and winning all the matches."

CHAMPIONS OF THE ISTHMIAN AND SOUTHERN LEAGUES

Reproduced with the permission of Chelmsford City FC from their match day programme on Saturday, 5th April 2008.

"An interesting question this week from Simon Brewster – “David, I know that both Yeovil Town and Wimbledon have won both the Isthmian League championship and the Southern League championship, but has any other club or clubs ever achieved this feat?”

Simon is quite right when he says that both Wimbledon and Yeovil have won the championship of these two leagues. Wimbledon joined the Isthmian League in 1921 and were continuous members until they turned professional in 1964 and joined the Southern League. Their first Isthmian League championship came in 1930-1931 and they repeated the feat the following season, 1931-1932. They had to wait until 1958-1959 for their next title before winning the league for three seasons in a row, 1961-1962, 1962-1963 and 1963-1964, before the decision to embrace professionalism.

Having joined the Southern League in 1964 they had to wait until 1974-1975 before they claimed that league's championship, but then repeated their three championships in a row feat by winning the title in the 1975-1976 and 1976-1977 seasons. They replaced Workington Town in the Football League at the end of that season.

Yeovil Town joined the Southern League in 1922, they were known as Yeovil and Petters United at the time, and were continuous members until 1979, with the exception of the 1930-1931 season. They were then founder members of what is now the Football Conference. Their first Southern League championship came in 1954-1955, and this was repeated in 1963-1964 and 1970-1971.

They originally joined the Isthmian League in 1985, when relegated from the Football Conference, and were champions in 1987-1988 to regain their place in the top flight of non league football. They were relegated again in 1995 and were champions for the second time in 1996-1997.

Simon has overlooked two and possibly three other clubs that have won the championship of both leagues. Gravesend and Northfleet won the Southern League Championship in 1957-1958 and the Isthmian League in 2001-2002. Farnborough Town won the Southern League championship in 1990-1991 and 1993-1994 and won the Isthmian League championship in 2000-2001, having joined that league on their relegation from the Football Conference.

The other club that have achieved this feat is not so clear cut. Aldershot won the Southern League championship in 1929-1930 and the club that succeeded them, Aldershot Town, won the Isthmian League championship in 2002-2003. It all depends on whether or not you consider these two to be the same club.
