CLUB GOSSIP

HENDON FC

Hendon saw in 2010 with a home fixture - and victory - over Harrow Borough in the Ryman League Premier Division.

Not only was this the Greens' first Saturday home League win of the season, the 2nd January fixture was their first Saturday home game since the end of August.

They had played Ryman League fixtures on Saturdays in 2009–10, but the previous one had been on 29th August, when Kingstonian won 3–0. Fixtures in September, October and November were all called off because of Hendon's commitments in the FA Cup and FA Trophy, while one in December fell foul of the weather.

Hendon thus played home League games on the last two Saturdays of the summer, then on the fifth Saturday of winter. In between, i.e. the whole of the autumn, there were none.

It must be remembered that the Greens are tenants of Wembley FC this arrangement played its part in the unusual situation because a fixture clash did cause one match – a September defeat of Cray Wanderers – to be moved to the Sunday.

In all, Hendon played only four Ryman League Premier Division home matches between the Kingstonian defeat and the Harrow Borough victory:

Monday 31st August, 4–1 win against Aveley
 Sunday 22nd September, 3–1 win against Cray Wanderers
 Tuesday 24th September, 2–1 defeat against Margate
 Tuesday 1st December, 1–1 draw with Horsham

WEALDSTONE FC

Wealdstone Football Club have announced that their Manager, Gordon Bartlett, has signed a new contract that will commit him to the club he joined in 1995 until the end of next season, 2010/11 campaign.

Gordon's signing of a new contract also coincides with his upcoming 1000th game in charge at Wealdstone which is a truly remarkable milestone for the UEFA 'A' licence holder.

Of his new contract Gordon said: 'I believe we are progressing in the right way both on and off the park and I am pleased to commit myself to trying to bring Wealdstone a stable and successful long term future. Despite our financial limitations and being homeless for so many years, we have continued to climb back up the pyramid and I have shared some great experiences over my 15 years at the 'Stones'. We have come a long way since our arrival at our new home at 'The Vale', have amazing support, a quality young playing squad and I am surrounded by an excellent management team, so I would be mad not to want to continue being at the helm. With more hard work from everyone involved, I honestly believe success at Wealdstone is not too far away'

Wealdstone Chairman, Howard Krais said: 'We are all absolutely delighted that Gordon has committed himself to the club in this way and allows us to solidly build on our on-field progress and the club's development strategy; Gordon is key and central to our plans'

Meanwhile, further good news for the Stones is that their dynamic centre half, Alan Massey, 21, has signed a contract extension that will run to the end of the 2010/11 season. The ex Wycombe Wanderers player originally signed for the club in August 2008 following an earlier loan spell and was last season's Supporters Club Player of the Season.
