WEEKEND REVIEW

Premier Division

AFC Hornchurch are the only Premier Division side to have claimed six points in 2010 after their 3-0 win over Bognor on Saturday lifted them to eighth place in the table, two points away from the play-off spots. Jonathan Hunt, whose late penalty earned a 2-1 victory over Aveley on 2nd January, slotted home two more spot-kicks, one in each half, to put Urchins in command against Bognor. Both followed fouls on Duane Jackman and Bognor's Lewis Ide was sent off for disputing the second one.

Jackman, who had come into the starting line-up to replace top scorer Wayne Gray after his move to Grays Athletic, then set up the third goal for Mark Janney. Hornchurch were always on top, though it had taken a superb double save by Darren Behcet to prevent the visitors taking the lead and Richard Hudson had two efforts cleared off the line.

Bognor are back in the bottom two, below Billericay who drew 1-1 at Tooting. Each side's leading scorer was on the mark by the 35th minute, with Billy Bricknell giving the visitors the lead with his 11th goal of the season and Paul Vines replying with his 19th. Tooting came closest in the second half when Allan McLeod's shot was blocked after beating keeper Andy Walker.

James Rowe's 16th goal of the season, on the stroke of half-time, opened the floodgates for Canvey, who went on to crush Cray Wanderers 5-1. After the restart goals came at regular intervals from Robbie King, Gabriel Fanibuyan and a Jason Hallett double before impressive Cray debutant Marcus Cassius grabbed a last-minute consolation.

Canvey are up to sixth while Cray are in deep trouble, already in the relegation zone having played several more games than the other strugglers: seven more than Billericay, who are three points behind them.

Margate moved a point clear of Cray with a 1-1 home draw against Ashford (Middx). Brian Haule headed the opener for Ashford in the 18th minute after a frustrating start for Margate during which they hit the bar and had two efforts cleared off the line. Sam Groombridge levelled matters in the 42nd minute and there was no further scoring, although the visitors had several chances to spoil the day for Margate boss Mark Butler, who joined them from Ashford a few weeks ago.

The other seven Premier Division games were all postponed.

Division One North

If you can't beat them, sign them. That seems to be the motto at Wingate & Finchley, who finished 2009 with a 4-0 home defeat by Northwood in which Gary Burrell scored twice. Since then Burrell has signed for Wingate and he made his mark in his first outing for them as they romped to a 4-0 half-time lead at Great Wakering on Saturday. David Laird and Leon Smith put the visitors 2-0 up after 16 minutes and Burrell fired the third from long range before Smith struck again, his 17th goal of the season.

Woking's own new boy, Joe Gardner, pulled a goal back after the interval but any prospect of a comeback was ended when Adam Bailey-Dennis was sent off on the hour, although Neil Richmond reduced the final margin to 4-2. For Wingate, who beat Leyton 4-0 on 2nd January, it has been a splendid start to the new year after such a dismal end to the old one.

Lowestoft, meanwhile, go marching on at the top. With the next five teams in Saturday morning's table all having their matches called off, the Trawlermen moved six points clear with a 4-2 home victory against Potters Bar. The visitors made them work for it, twice taking the lead in the first half through Jordan Watson and Ellis Remy. Neil Plaskett and Matthew Nolan, with his 19th of the campaign, made it 2-2 at the break and a Joe Francis double settled it.

Two away teams took early leads only to be beaten 2-1. Bradley Drisdale put Ware in front after seven minutes at Heybridge but Luke Fisher equalised shortly before the break. Ware had Sam Ruff dismissed after 62 minutes and paid the price when Leon Antoine grabbed a last-gasp winner.

Andy Edmunds scored in the fifth minute for Redbridge at Tilbury, who were denied an equaliser when Joel Barnett's effort was blocked on the line. Barnett had better luck after the interval when his cross was converted by Jamie Wallace to level the scores and substitute Chris Taylor got the winner with his first touch. Former Hornchurch midfielder Paul Shave marred a good debut for Dockers when he was sent off for a wild challenge in the 90th minute.

Waltham Forest also struck early in their game at VCD, Peter Smith finding the net after nine minutes. But that did pave the way to victory. Before half-time VCD lost Gary Cook to a second yellow card and Forest keeper Sam Tanner saved a Leroy Huggins penalty. Andre Humphrey-Modeste made it 2-0 with ten minutes to go and a late reply from Aaron Firth was not enough to save the home side.

Six games in this division were added to the huge list of postponements in the last month.

Only two matches beat the weather in Division One South on Saturday, involving four teams on the fringe of the play-off race. Both produced home wins after late flurries of goals. Lee Barnett scored with five minutes left to give Chatham a 3-2 victory over Merstham in a game that, for a long time, looked as if it would be settled by a 12th-minute goal by Brendon Cass.

Merstham had Tristan Frontin sent off midway through the second half but drew level in the 72nd minute through Craig Carley and, after Ashley Proberts restored Chatham's lead six minutes later, Billy Marshall hit back again. The ten men, however, had no answer to Barnett's deflected 30-yarder.

Ramsgate keeper Danny Twyman pulled off several outstanding saves in the first half of his side's game at Dulwich and it ended scoreless. Twyman was not fit to resume after the interval and substitute Sam Mott did not have a shot to save until the 61st minute, when Junior Kadi put Dulwich ahead from the spot. The home side's top scorer Sol Pinnock came off the bench shortly afterwards and he made it 2-0 in the 85th minute. Liam Quinn gave Ramsgate hope with a delightful chip in the last minute of normal time but, in the third of four added minutes, Pinnock converted Kadi's pass to complete a 3-1 victory.

It was Dulwich's second successive victory at Champion Hill after they had gone eight months without a home win in any competition. It was also their first game anywhere since December 12. No other club had been idle for so long; Redbridge, who had not played in the league since that date, at least managed to fulfil a London Senior Cup tie on 16th December.

Dulwich programme editor John Lawrence revealed that, if Saturday's game had been called off, the club would have equalled, and perhaps gone on to beat, their all-time record of 37 days without playing which was set in the dreadful winter of 1962-63.

THE BUYING GAME

Behind the scenes at Britain's retail giants, buying teams have the power to create trends, make or break careers and decide exactly what the public buys.

Dragons' Den star Theo Paphitis presents a new 7 x 60" series produced by Maverick Television for BBC2 - The Buying Game goes behind closed doors at some of the biggest names in UK retail to expose the secret world of buying for the first time.

In a twist, these buyers won't be turning to their trusted suppliers for the next big thing. Instead they'll be gambling on the talents of the British public in their quest to find the best and most innovative new products. For the fledgling designer, this is a chance in a lifetime.

Theo Paphitis - Dragon, retailer and business star - knows and loves the business of buying. He'll be at the helm of this ambitious project: demystifying shop talk and revealing the competitive inner workings of retail, from prototype to product development to the finished article on the shop floor.

Janice Hadlow, Controller, BBC Two says, "It's going to be fascinating to see Theo's extraordinary understanding of the market and astute business acumen at work outside of the Den combined with a great insight into a rarely glimpsed side of the retail industry."

NONLEAGUE24 MAGAZINE

Don't Miss NonLeague24 Magazine ISSUE THREE – Out Now!

We may have been left frustrated by the amount of recent postponements, but one team that hasn't had a winter break is the editorial crew at NonLeague24! Issue 3 of this 132-page full colour glossy magazine is out now in shops across the UK – or via your club. Extensive coverage of the whole Non-League scene from the Blue Square Premier to Step 7 is available inside, as well as detailed statistical coverage and match analysis.

As usual there's a section of the magazine dedicated entirely to the Ryman Football League – this month there's a look at how Folkestone Invicta have shot to the top of the Ryman One South, plus find out why Mark Butler made his sideways move to the seaside to become the manager at Margate. NonLeague24 sat down with players from Concord Rangers and Tooting & Mitcham for interviews, plus there's the usual stats pack covering the games that did manage to survive the weather from across the three Ryman divisions.

Meanwhile, you can meet supporters of Avey, Lowestoft and Whyteleafe in the regular Super Fans section, plus there's an extra special feature on Maidstone United's former defender Chris Smalling, who has made it big in the Premier League.

The much discussed Ryman Dream Team also returns – find out if one of your team's players has impressed the judging panel this month! There's also dedicated sections for the Blue Square, Zamaretto and Unibond Leagues, plus the magazine now has even more coverage of Steps 5-7 and the Welsh scene.

The monthly publication, priced at £3.95 for 132 pages, is in shops now (including selected WH Smith stores). Enter your postcode at www.NonLeaguenews24.com to find your nearest stockist. There is also an opportunity to buy it through your club (subject to your club having agreed to the sale or return policy) where your club receives £1 for each copy sold.

Special subscription offers are also available saving you money off the cover price. More information can be found on www.NonLeaguenews24.com

CLUB GOSSIP

ASHFORD TOWN (MIDDX) FC

Ashford Town (Middlesex) Football Club have announced that all children accompanied by an adult will be admitted FREE to next Saturday's home match with Waltham Abbey.

This initiative has been made possible by long-term supporter Dave Norris, who has offered to meet the cost as part of a matchball sponsorship for the day.

Admission charges for adults and concessions remain unchanged, at £9.00 and £5.00 respectively, representing a great value family day out.

As Spelthorne's only FA Charter Standard Community Club, Ashford Town (Middlesex) FC are proud to be at the heart of their local area and hope that many families will take advantage of this promotion.

After the Waltham Abbey fixture, admission for children will return to the standard rate of £1.00.

BRENTWOOD TOWN FC

Brentwood Town have signed 20-year-old forward Garry Bowes to boost their attacking options. Bowes has recently been at Blue Square Premier side Salisbury City and was previously on Millwall's books.

Town manager Les Whitton explains: "A friend told me he was back this way looking for a club to try and re-establish himself and get back to a higher level so he's come along, trained with us and signed on. He can play wide on the left or as a straight striker and he's exceptionally quick.

"It gives us another option and competition for places with three out and out strikers in him, Kris Lee and Piers Wixon. In addition we've other goal scorers now on board like Reggie Savage so we should solve our problem of not scoring enough goals."

CROYDON ATHLETIC FC

Croydon Athletic have confirmed they have agreed an undisclosed fee for the transfer of goalkeeper Ross Flitney to Dover Athletic. Ross has agreed personal terms and signed for Dover Saturday.

Ross was instrumental in the success of the Rams' side following Tim O'Shea's arrival last season, and was a popular and influential character both on and off the pitch. He will be sadly missed but the Club wish him every success in his future career.

Other players leaving the club: - Kieran McCann, Young Player of the Year last season, has agreed a move to Whyteleafe in order to get first team football, and Bradley Duke, last year's Supporters Player of the Year and Most Improved Player of the Year, has joined Burgess Hill Town officially this week. We send our best wishes to Kieran and Bradley for the future.

On a brighter note, the Rams' welcome highly respected young goalkeeper Nicky Morgan to the club. Nicky has joined Croydon Athletic initially on a loan deal from Braintree FC with a view to a permanent move. He has also played for Crawley Town and Southend in his career. Nicky will hopefully be in action on Tuesday night against Hastings United, and the club hope this is the beginning of a long and mutually beneficial relationship with Croydon Athletic.

LOWESTOFT TOWN FC

Gary Holt admits he may not be around to help Lowestoft Town make another step up the non-league pyramid in the spring. The Scottish midfielder joined the Trawler Boys in October, after leaving his player/coach role at Football League One side Colchester United.

Although Holt has signed until the end of the season, he was free to talk to league clubs from the start of the new year and acknowledges he may miss out on any spring promotion parties at Crown Meadow should a suitable offer in the professional game come along.

Holt said: "I'm contracted to the end of the season but we'll all have to wait and see what happens. I'm eligible to sign for a league club as of January 1, so if a coaching role or something like that comes up then I'd be silly not to talk about it."

Like much of the country's non-league calendar, Lowestoft have been without a game since the 3-1 win over Thamesmead on December 19 due to the freezing weather.

"It's been interesting; it's just a shame we were going so well that suddenly the weather puts an end to that, but it's one of those things," said Holt. "No one has played any games so we're in the same boat as everyone else. You've got to take it on the chin and get on with it."

Lowestoft are in the box seat for a charge at promotion to the Ryman League Premier Division, three points clear at the top of Division One North with at least two games in hand on their nearest challengers.

Holt said: "The league position has come from hard work and the coaching staff not letting us rest on our laurels. It's not letting you just turn up and expect to win the game. You have to put the hard work in to get there. It's like in any level of football. You have got to do the hard work and the horrible stuff to get the rewards and we're putting that in week after week - and it's bearing fruit at the moment."

PLAYERS AVAILABLE – BILLERICAY TOWN FC

Ashley Dumas - Left back, aged 22. Played over 50 games last season and was supporters Player of the Season.

Harrison Chatting - Left midfield, aged 19. Highly rated prospect from our youth section, has played over 30 games in last 18 months and needs to be playing more regularly to further develop.

Both players are under written contract and should not be approached direct. All enquiries should be through Brian Statham 07977 417187
