THEO PAPHITIS POGOS INTO THE LIMELIGHT FOR SPORT RELIEF

It's not every day that a well-respected entrepreneur is caught pogoing but that's exactly what straight talking but warm hearted Dragons' Den star Theo Paphitis is doing for Sport Relief.

Theo is busy encouraging the 2,500 Ryman employees and their millions of customers nationwide to raise in excess of £100,000 for Sport Relief.

Large posters of the store's Chairman appear in each of the 237 specialist stationery store windows and across 17 lorries from the fleet of Ryman vehicles.

The retail group (www.ryman.co.uk) is selling exclusive Sport Relief pens and pencils at £1 each, with the full £1 going straight to Sport Relief.

The Sport Relief weekend takes place from Friday March 19 to Sunday March 21 and brings the entire nation together to get active, raise cash and change lives.

The charity's photographer encouraged Theo to do a series of funny poses and the Ryman marketing boss, Sarah Cheetham, then persuaded him to use the pictures in a new campaign which invites the public to raise 'loads of money'.

Sarah Cheetham says, "By having Theo's presence in over 200 high street locations, combined with vehicle posters on all our lorries on the nation's major roads, we have created significant advertising campaign running for ten weeks".

Employees are also encouraged to raise funds themselves through zany activities in store, such as exercise bike races and sport quizzes. Theo himself will be taking part in the Sport Relief Mile in Bristol and another at the re-build Weston-Super-Mare pier that will open specially on Sunday March 21 for Sport Relief.

Theo Paphitis said, "Having recently returned from a trip to Kenya with fellow Dragons where we saw the positive impact of money raised through Sport Relief, I am more determined than ever to raise loads of cash. The experience was completely humbling. It's great to know that the money raised will transform the lives of those in desperate need across the UK and world's poorest countries."

About Ryman: Ryman is the leading specialist stationery retailer, whose chairman is Dragons' Den star, Theo Paphitis. The company was first established in 1893 and now has 237 stores nationwide. A typical store stocks 4,500 different kinds of items and the company prides itself on excellent customer service.

WEEKEND REVIEW

Premier Division

It was not a happy Saturday for Wealdstone manager Gordon Bartlett and his assistant Leo Morris, who were celebrating their 1,000th game since taking charge in the summer of 1995. A home fixture against bottom club Waltham Abbey provided an ideal opportunity to enjoy the day all seemed set fair as Mark E'Beyer and James Gray gave Stones a 2-0 half-time lead.

But the Essex team were not prepared to be the clowns at the party. Their never-give-up efforts were dramatically rewarded as Billy Holland and Andy Keepence put them on terms. Then a James Elmes penalty put them in front with seven minutes and he scored again at the death, leaving Bartlett to bemoan a second-half display that he described as one of the worst of his time at the club. Stones were firm favourites to finish second, thanks to a mass of games in hand, a few days ago but this second successive 4-2 defeat, and fourth winless outing, leaves them with much ground to make up.

At the top, meanwhile, Dartford's wobble continued as they lost for the second time in five days. James Norwood scored six minutes before half-time and Sam Gargan added another in the 79th minute as Sutton United left Princes Park with a 2-0 victory, lifting themselves into a play-off slot.

Dartford's lead is down to seven points after Kingstonian's lone-goal victory at Horsham. For once, it was not Bobby Traynor but Carl Wilson-Denis who scored the decisive goal, a 31st minute header. Sam Tucknott, Horsham's recent signing from Bognor, hit the bar from long range in the closing stages.

An offside flag kept Hastings in third place as it denied Canvey's James Rowe a last-gasp winner at the Pilot Field. Rowe had rounded the keeper to give Canvey the lead with his 18th goal of the season just after half-time. A foul on Sean Ray allowed Sam Adams to equalise with a penalty in the 64th minute and it finished 1-1. Boreham Wood are a point behind in fourth place after a superb display by goalie Tony Tucker helped them to a goalless draw at Carshalton.

Tooting slipped out of the top five after Paul Johnson scored a late goal to give visiting Ashford (Middx) a 3-2 win. Brian Haule got on the end of a long throw to give Ashford an early lead which Johnson doubled with a deflected free-kick. The Terrors replied with a free-kick of their own from Simon Parker on the stroke of half-time and he levelled matters 20 minutes after the break. But Johnson had the last word, bringing his side level on points with Sutton and Tooting in the battle for a play-off place.

The battle to stay up is even more intense. The bottom nine are now covered by eight points with Cray, two points further ahead, having played at least three games more than all the sides below them. They are certainly not in relegation form at the moment, though. They beat visitors Hornchurch 1-0, the goal coming from a 13th minute Colin Luckett penalty after Michael Spencer tripped Leigh Bremner, and it was their third successive victory and clean sheet.

Aveley eased their worries and ended a six-match run without a league win by seeing off Maidstone 2-0 at the Mill Field. A goal in each half did the trick, Ryan Doyle and Martin Tuohy the marksmen.

Hendon also picked up three precious points and, like Waltham Abbey, they had to wipe out a 2-0 half-time deficit away from home. Lloyd Blackman and Dan Stubbs netted for Margate before the game turned on the hour. A foul by Aaron Lacey produced a penalty and a red card for the culprit. Jamie Busby had missed from the spot when the sides met earlier in the season but he made no mistake this time. James Bent made it 2-2 after 75 minutes and Peter Dean claimed a last winner as the ten men failed to clear their lines. Hendon moved up to 17th, Margate are 20th.

Replacing Hendon in the bottom four are Tonbridge, whose season has fallen apart since they beat Hendon on 17th November, after which they were fourth in the table. Since then nine league outings have yielded just two points. They were beaten 3-1 on Saturday at Bognor, who are still 21st but now look to have a very real chance of escaping the drop. Jacob Walcott gave them the lead after two minutes but the Angels were level after 15 through Tom Bryant. Scott Kinch handled to allow Luke Nightingale to restore Bognor's lead with a 26th minute penalty and he scored again shortly before the break.

Billericay are just outside the bottom four after failing to follow up their 1-0 midweek home win over Dartford. Chris Wild gave them another 1-0 home lead, this time against Harrow, but Rocky Baptiste and Dean Fenton netted after the break as Harrow won 2-1.

Division One North

Lowestoft Town completed a bad week for table-topping clubs as they went down 3-2 at home to Ware on Saturday. It was only their second league defeat of the season, following the leaders of the other divisions, Dartford and Folkestone, who were both beaten for the second time on Tuesday. In recent weeks the Suffolk side have developed a habit of letting their opponents score first before powering past them. They had plenty of opportunity to do so this time; Ware scored in the very first minute through Michael Toner. The Trawlerboys duly hit back in the sixth minute through Matthew Nolan, his 20th goal of the season. But Ware were to ignore the script.

They deservedly regained the lead in the 67th minute when Luke Marshall rounded keeper Dave Attridge and Matt Turpin headed home ten minutes later to make it 3-1. Lowestoft had never before found themselves two goals adrift in a Ryman League game and they could not recover, even though Toner was sent off with six minutes left. Nolan, who scored twice in the game at Ware including a late point-saver, netted an 89th minute penalty but Ware held out to inflict Lowestoft's first league defeat since 22nd August.

Thamesmead moved back into second place with a 2-0 victory at Brentwood. Andy Constable's 18th of the season gave them a half-time lead and Calum McGeehan doubled it.

They moved above East Thurrock, who were held to a 1-1 draw at Wingate & Finchley. Kris Newby put the visitors ahead after 55 minutes but Tidjane Carvalho replied with 13 minutes left and, although Jordan Fowler was sent off shortly afterwards, Rocks could not profit from their extra man.

Lyle Taylor became the league's leading scorer in all competitions with his 25th of the season in the 28th minute, setting Concord on their way to a 2-1 home win over Potters Bar and fourth place in the table. They had beaten the same opponents 2-0 five days earlier and it looked like a repeat result when Leon Fisher scored with two minutes left. This time, though, Chris Doyle grabbed a consolation goal.

Enfield Town dropped to fifth place as they lost 3-2 at home to Great Wakering, who are now a point behind them. In an eventful game, Nikki Beale put the visitors ahead in the second minute only for Rudi Hall to convert two penalties by the half-hour mark. It gave him 11 goals for the season, making him Enfield's joint-top scorer. They have four players in double figures, the only club in the league who can make that boast. Wakering looked in real trouble when Adam Bailey-Dennis was sent off for the second time in four games but the ten men took the points with a Neil Richmond double in the space of three minutes midway through the second half.

No-one in this division had a better week than Romford, who started it in 18th place. They followed up their shock 3-0 midweek win at Thamesmead by romping to a 4-1 victory at Waltham Forest. Kurt Smith, who scored twice at Thamesmead, did it again with goals early in each half. Paul Kavanagh contributed a 19th minute penalty and Chris Thomas claimed the fourth before Luke Hornsley replied.

Heybridge, who were getting into play-off contention with five successive wins before they were derailed by defeats against the current top two, got back on track with two unanswered goals at VCD. Harrison Chatting, newly-arrived from Billericay, opened their account on 32 minutes with a superb 25-yard free-kick and Leon Antoine added another right on half-time.

An own goal by former Orient defender Donny Barnard after 14 minutes proved to be all Northwood needed for victory at Tilbury.

With Redbridge's home game against Ilford being the day's only postponement, any reward at Maldon would have given 20th placed Leyton some breathing space above the relegation zone. But they were beaten 3-1 after Ricky Edwards replied to Daryl Plummer's early strike, making Edwards the first player to reach the three-goal mark for Leyton this season. Plummer restored Maldon's lead after the interval and Jack Jeffery made sure.

The only other home winners in this division were Cheshunt, who edged out bottom club Harlow 2-1. All the goals came in the first half, with Harlow debutant Aaron Scott, formerly of Ilford, replying to Bradley Harrison's opener before Chris Meikle got the winner in the 43rd minute.

Division One South

It had been a week to forget for Division One South leaders Folkestone, who were beaten for only the second time on Tuesday and then announced a CVA on Friday, expecting a ten-point deduction to follow. On the field, though, it was back to business as usual with their eighth 1-0 win of the season. Not for the first time, the goal came late in the game. James Everitt, who had earlier hit a post, did better in the 86th minute to clinch victory at Walton Casuals and keep them eight points clear for the moment.

Croydon Athletic are running into form at the right time. After beating Folkestone in midweek to take over second place, they made it three victories in a row with a crushing 5-1 success at Merstham. Recent signing Gareth Williams led the way with his second successive Saturday hat-trick. His first came after 23 minutes and Rory Hill added another a minute before the interval. Craig Vernon pulled one back on the hour but that was as good as it got for Merstham, now down to 14th after being in the top three for much of the season. Williams scored his second on 75 minutes and another ten minutes later before Gary Noel completed the rout with his 23rd of the season.

Croydon were not the day's highest scorers, however. That honour went to Leatherhead, who thrashed Whitstable 7-1 at Fetcham Grove. Two of Leatherhead's last three home games have produced eight goals and their fans were a lot happier this time than last, a 6-2 defeat by Horsham YMCA. Marc Elston put them ahead after three minutes, the other six goals following in a devastating 22 minute spell either side of the interval. Matt Francis made it 2-0 in the 37th minute with Jon Coke and Mark Simmons doubling the total in the last two minutes of the half. Francis then took his haul to four by the 59th minute and double figures looked within range. The only other goal, though, was a consolation for the visitors by Gareth Cornhill.

Back at the top of the end of the table, Fleet stayed behind Croydon only on goal difference as they collected their fifth successive win, 3-0 against next-to-bottom Eastbourne Town. Eastbourne held out until the 51st minute, when Dan Read broke the deadlock. Mark Anderson soon added a second and James Field wrapped it up.

Worthing lost ground on the sides above them with a 2-2 home draw against Ramsgate, who were denied all three points by Jamie Brotherton's 88th minute penalty. Ben Williamson's goal gave Rebels a half-time lead but Margate hit back with a Warren Schulz double in the 48th and 59th minutes, in between which Worthing's Glen Woodburn picked up his second yellow card. Then Schulz turned villain with the challenge that produced the late penalty.

Godalming, in fifth place, are three points behind Worthing after going down 3-1 at Metropolitan Police. Paul Honey opened the scoring with a ninth minute penalty after Ron Edwards was brought down by James Wade. Edwards volleyed the second moments before the break and Wade made amends by earning a penalty in the 65th minute for Glen Stanley to put the visitors back in the game. The hosts survived some heavy pressure and clinched the points with three minutes left when Gary Drewett headed home from a free-kick.

Walton & Hersham, who had taken only one point from their previous five games, moved to within a point of Godalming with a 2-1 win at bottom club Ashford. Both goals came in the first half from Martin Grant, recently signed from neighbours Walton Casuals, and they took his overall tally to 21. Ashford fought back well but a Laurence Harvey header on 63 minutes was not enough to save the day.

A penalty double by Junior Kadi, in the 41st and 64th minutes, kept Dulwich's play-off hopes bubbling with a 2-0 win at Chatham. But Burgess Hill's challenge took a knock as they went down 3-1 at Corinthian-Casuals. Glenn Boosey and Julian Owusu-Bekoe made it 2-0 at half-time and Kane Sergeant added another before John Lansdale replied.

Chipstead moved well clear of the danger zone with their 2-0 derby success at Whyteleafe. Sean Rivers broke the deadlock with a 69th minute penalty and Ray Freeman made sure in the closing stages. Sittingbourne's home game against Horsham YMCA promised plenty of goals: the hosts had scored 15 in their last four, the visitors 22 in six. Inevitably, it finished 0-0 with YM keeper Tony Di Barnado in outstanding form.

Youth League

A hat-trick by Lewis Wombwell fired Ashford Town (Middx) through to the third round of the Lucas Fettes Youth Cup in a ten-goal thriller against Hayes & Yeading at Short Lane. Jack Taylor, with a penalty, and Mark Bitmead gave Ashford a 2-0 lead which George Isaac wiped out with goals either side of half-time.

Wombwell restored the two-goal gap on the hour, scoring twice in a minute, but Isaac Bonket quickly pulled one back. Ashford stretched their lead again through Bairoh Conteh and clinched the tie with a Wombwell penalty, leaving Isaac to complete his own hat-trick in the last minute to make it a 6-4 scoreline.

An equaliser four minutes into injury time by Tyrone Callender-Edwards proved to be in vain for Harrow in their first-round tie at Fleet. Nathan Pimm scored late in the first half of extra time to see Fleet through 3-2. Safi Fazli had put Harrow ahead in the 40th minute but Phillip Moore levelled matters before the interval and Luke Taylor's 84th-minute effort almost saw Fleet through without the extra half-hour.

There was just one game in the Ryman Youth League this week and it featured a hat-trick by Sutton's Bajrush Halili in their 5-1 home win over Chipstead. Unbeaten Sutton, who had not played a league game since September, took a ninth-minute lead through Halili. Chipstead, without a league victory, hit back ten minutes later when George Thornton netted. The game swung Sutton's way with goals from Joseph Wornham and Halili in the last three minutes of the first half. Joshua Gallagher made it 4-1 before Halili got his third in the 90th minute.

CLUB GOSSIP

ASHFORD TOWN (MIDDX) FC

Ashford Town (Middlesex) Football Club will feature on long-running TV programme FIFA Futbol Mondial next week.

Tangerines Manager Jamie Lawrence (pictured) will be shown talking about his appointment at Short Lane and also about his career to date and his work with the Jamie Lawrence Academy.

Filming also took place at Short Lane during a training session and during Ashford's recent home match with Billericay Town, in which Ashford recovered from going two goals behind to win the game 3-2.

The programme will be shown on Wednesday 17th February at 6.30pm on Sky Sports 2 and also in high-definition on Sky Sports HD2, with a repeat showing at 4.30am on Thursday 18th February on Sky Sports 1 and HD1. As well as being shown in the United Kingdom, the programme will also be transmitted around the world, including the United States, Australia, New Zealand, India, Pakistan and Venezuela.

FOLKESTONE INVICTA FC

Folkestone Invicta Football Club has issued the following statement after meetings held on 5th February with Creditors and Shareholders.

"Folkestone Invicta can confirm that with the formal approval of its Creditors and Shareholders, a Company Voluntary Arrangement (CVA) has been set in place to deal with the Club's state of indebtedness. This will allow the Club's Directors to plan and manage the club's financial affairs with confidence, and to re-establish focus on extending the club's community role and improving its facilities.

The Club anticipates that under current Ryman League rules it will automatically and immediately be deducted 10 points. It does not intend to contest this penalty.

With a CVA now in place, Lynn Woods has taken up the role of Chairman of the Club, and Mark Jenner has agreed to join the Board as the Club's Chief Executive. Existing Directors have agreed to remain in post.

The new Board is committed to change the Club's constitution and shareholding structure to commit Folkestone Invicta into the control and effective ownership of a Supporters' Trust. Further information on this proposal will be circulated before the end of the current season. An Extraordinary General Meeting will be required to approve any such changes.

FLEET TOWN FC

It is with great sadness that Fleet Town Football Club was informed of the death of Mr Ken Sinton, father of Manager Andy Sinton. Ken, aged 74, suffered a massive heart attack and passed away suddenly during the early hours of Friday, 5th February, in his home town of Newcastle upon Tyne. Ken was a real gentleman, quietly spoken, and fully supported Andy throughout his illustrious career.

All at Fleet Town F.C. and The Ryman League send Andy and his family our sincere condolences at this very sad time.

MAIDSTONE UNITED FC

Maidstone United Football Club have announced that the first team management duo of Alan Walker and Lloyd Hume have left the club.

Chairman Paul Bowden-Brown said: "It was with great regret that I have had to accept the resignation of both Alan and Lloyd, but after a long conversation both managers felt that they had taken this club as far as they could.

He added: "I would like to place on record my sincere thanks to both managers for the wonderful job that they have done over the years in taking our club to this level of football and I wish them every success in the future."

Due to a number of postponements Maidstone United have three games to prepare for this week – Hendon at home on Tuesday, Carshalton away on Thursday and home again on Saturday against Horsham.

WEALDSTONE FC

Wealdstone Football Club Youth player Reece Yorke, 17, has successfully come through trials last week and has been selected to play for England Schoolboys. Centre-half Reece will soon be flying off to a tournament in Malaga where he will represent England and will take part in several matches against Spanish sides including Villarreal.

Wealdstone Manager, Gordon Bartlett, said:
 "We are all delighted for Reece and it will be a fantastic experience for him - we wish him all the best over there."

Yorke made an impressive first team debut for Wealdstone in the 2-1 win against North Greenford United in the Middlesex Senior Cup in December and will no doubt be part of first team plans during the run-in, together with other Youth team players who are currently impressing.
