WEEKEND REVIEW

Premier Division

Dartford once again look secure at the top of the Premier Division after extending their lead back into double figures on Saturday. Their 3-2 victory over Ashford (Middx), coupled with Kingstonian's 2-1 defeat at Cray, puts Darts ten points clear and they still have three games in hand on the three clubs closest to them.

Ashford took an early lead at Princes Park with a seventh-minute penalty by Jamie England but an own goal by Dagenham loanee Femi Ilesanmi levelled matters within five minutes and Danny Harris headed Darts in front midway through the half. England made it 2-2 right on half-time but Lee Burns' 17th goal of the season two minutes after the restart proved to be the winner in front of a crowd of 1,101.

Cray chalked up their fifth win in six games thanks to an 87th minute strike by Marcus Cassius. Leigh Bremner had given them the lead five minutes into the second half. Colin Luckett had the chance to double it from the penalty spot but hit the bar and Bobby Traynor fired his 26th of the season for Kingstonian, and his 100th for the club, to make it 1-1 in the 77th minute.

K's are now two points ahead of Boreham Wood, for whom a fourth-minute header by Greg Morgan was enough at Bognor. One point further back are Hastings, who scored in each half to beat bottom club Waltham Abbey 2-0 at the Pilot Field. Ross Treleaven and Harry Pell were the marksmen. Hastings finished the game with nine men through injury and a red card for Lee Carey.

A four-point gap has developed behind Hastings but the battle has been well and truly joined for the final play-off spot, with the next seven teams covered by just two points. Sutton, Horsham and Tooting are on 41, Ashford on 40, Hornchurch, Canvey and Wealdstone on 39, with the latter having played fewer games than anyone else. But only 12 points separate the play-off and relegation zones, and almost anyone could get into contention with a short run of success.

The south London derby at Tooting finished all square, with a post denying Sam Gargan a last-gasp Sutton winner. Simon Parker put the home side ahead two minutes before the interval but they had Colin Hartburn sent off on the hour and Gargan equalised in the 75th minute.

Horsham strengthened their challenge by coming from behind to beat Hendon 3-1. Trailing to an Anthony Thomas goal at half-time, Hornets levelled through Sam Page just before the hour and Pat Harding struck twice to see them home. Two goals in the first ten minutes of the second half set up Hornchurch's 3-2 victory at Wealdstone. It was 1-1 at half-time, with a Ryan Ashe penalty replying to Ross Wall's first goal since returning to Hornchurch from Concord. Michael Spencer and Jamie Dormer then fired Urchins into a 3-1 lead and Callum Martin's late effort was not enough to save Stones.

Canvey fell behind after three minutes at lowly Margate when Sam Jones claimed his first goal since making the short move from Ramsgate. Greg Cohen squared it before half-time and, after Lloyd Blackman hit a post for the Kent club, Jay Curran claimed the winner.

Harrow are up to the 38-point mark after a 2-1 victory at the Mill Field ended Aveley's three-match winning streak. Lewis Cook netted either side of half-time – his three goals in Harrow colours have all been scored against Aveley – and it was the 85th minute before Millers managed to reply through Steve Butterworth.

The crucial match at the bottom was at Colston Avenue and it was an unhappy start to Ian Hazel's reign as Carshalton's third manager of the season. Visitors Tonbridge won 2-1 and their hosts take their place in the relegation slots. Tonbridge recently announced budget cuts after a run of nine matches brought only two points and they have won both their games since then. Jerahl Hughes put them ahead six minutes before half-time and Paul Booth doubled the lead in the 72nd minute. Charlie Ide pulled one back with eight minutes left.

Carshalton are four points ahead of Margate, who are in turn one ahead of Bognor and Waltham Abbey.

Billericay and Maidstone, neither of them out of the relegation woods, shared a 1-1 draw at New Lodge where Chris Wild scored in the 11th minute for Billericay and Nick Barnes replied five minutes after the break. James Baker thought he had won it for the Essex boys but he was ruled offside.

Division One North

Second half specialist Joe Francis was at it again on Saturday, firing a 20-minute hat-trick as Lowestoft beat fourth-placed East Thurrock 4-3 in a thriller watched by 857 at Crown Meadow. The Trawlerboys have made a habit of hitting back hard after falling behind but for once they were on the receiving end. Craig Bussens fired them ahead after 36 minutes only for Rocks to turn round with a 2-1 lead thanks to Sam Berry and Kye Ruel. Francis equalised on the hour and struck again within two minutes. Back came the visitors to make it 3-3 through Max Cornhill before Francis had the last word with ten minutes left.

The other big match in the division was at Thames Road where second-placed Concord took on Thamesmead, who trailed them only on goal difference. Lyle Taylor's 26th of the season gave Concord a half-time lead which was wiped out seven minutes after the restart when Andy Constable took his personal haul to 20. Nicky Cowley quickly restored Concord's lead and Danny Glozier made it 3-1 with a 62nd minute penalty. That was how it finished, although Taylor was sent off for a wild challenge with 20 minutes left.

Thamesmead stayed in third place but East Thurrock dropped two places to sixth. Enfield Town moved up to fourth with a 2-0 home win over Northwood while Wingate & Finchley moved into the play-off zone by beating Ware 3-1.

Jon Moore gave Enfield the lead on the hour and they clinched the points when Michael Peacock headed an Adam Wallace cross into his own net. Wingate, unbeaten in nine games since the turn of the year, maintained their progress in a hard-fought game. Gary Burrell put them ahead in the first half and further goals came midway through the second period from Chris Chase and James Edgerley. That was harsh on Ware and Dan Buglione managed a deserved consolation goal.

Heybridge are still in contention after an injury-time goal by Perry Sansford completed their comeback from a 2-0 deficit at Cheshunt. Chris Meikle opened the scoring in the 32nd minute and David Hicks doubled the lead nine minutes after the interval. Tom Broadhurst put Swifts back in the picture on the hour and he levelled the scores after 83 minutes, leaving Sansford to do the rest.

Romford were the only team in the bottom eight to pick up points, winning 1-0 at VCD. The hosts were on top for long periods and almost took an early lead when Lee Maskell's chip beat keeper Neil Finn. But the assistant referee was well placed to rule, correctly, that James Gammons had cleared it off the line. Jack Barry then put Romford ahead in the 15th minute and they held on to record their third successive away win despite constant pressure from the home side.

Harlow remain 14 points adrift at the bottom, though they came within nine minutes of a draw at Brentwood. Recent signings Darren Ebsworth and Joe Stevens scored late goals to give Brentwood a 2-0 victory. Redbridge, in 21st place, had yet another home game postponed, this one against Great Wakering. Their last outing at Oakfield was on 12th December, when they lost 5-0 to Lowestoft, and since then they have played only three times, losing them all. They are still only a point behind Leyton, who have now played five more games after their 2-1 defeat at Tilbury. Ben Bradbury scored twice in the first 19 minutes for the home side and might have had a third before Tom Prendergast replied midway through the second half.

Maldon went down 4-0 at home to Potters Bar, who were two up in 12 minutes through Jake Parratt and Joe O'Brien. Guy Helman got a third shortly before the interval and Sam Adejokun completed the rout with a late penalty.

Ilford found themselves in the away dressing rooms at their own ground as they faced tenants Waltham Forest, who cruised to a 3-0 victory. Rob Carter's first-half double put Forest in command and Ilford went down to ten men when Samuel Sunday was sent off in the 64th minute. Danny Gabriel made it 3-0 with a penalty shortly afterwards and Ilford's misery was complete when Anton Dwyer was also dismissed. The league's lowest crowd of the day, just 40, watched this most local of derbies.

Division One South

Pre-season title favourites Croydon Athletic are starting to live up to their billing after a mixed first half of the season. Chris Piper's hat-trick led them to a 4-2 victory at Corinthian-Casuals on Saturday, their fifth successive win, and they would be five points clear at the top had Folkestone's expected ten-point deduction not been awaiting confirmation. It was Casuals who went ahead in the seventh minute through Glenn Boosey, Piper's deflected free-kick levelling matters three minutes later. Piper put Croydon in front three minutes after the interval, then saw Scott Corbett make it 2-2 shortly afterwards. Gary Noel's 24th of the season put the visitors ahead again on the hour and a missed Casuals penalty by Dale Hennessey proved costly as Piper wrapped it up.

Folkestone, still five points ahead for the moment, went down 2-0 at Sittingbourne, who fancy their chances of getting into the play-off race. Hicham Akhazzan's 24th minute penalty separated the sides at half-time and, three minutes after the break, Folkestone's Simon Austin was sent off for a challenge which forced home keeper Deren Ibrahim out of the game. Having an outfield player, Billy Manners, between the posts proved the lesser handicap and the ten men conceded a second goal to Tom Bradbrook with eight minutes left.

Fleet, another side who have struggled to live up to their pre-season rating, held on to third place despite crashing to a 4-1 home defeat by Burgess Hill, their second successive setback after a run of five wins had seemingly put their troubles behind them. The Hillians were two up in 19 minutes with Will Berry's deflected free-kick and a volley from Steve Harper. Top scorer Danny Curd made it 3-0 ten minutes before the break and Berry added another in the second half, leaving Fleet the slender consolation of a 90th minute free-kick by James Field.

Godalming and Worthing both won to draw level with Fleet on points. Godalming looked likely to rue a 14th minute penalty miss by James Wade at Walton Casuals but, with the game still goalless, they were given another chance from the spot with three minutes left and Glen Stanley made no mistake. Worthing left it even later. It was four minutes into added time before Matt Simpson scored to complete a 3-2 victory over ten-man Chipstead. Evan Archibald put Worthing ahead and, after Scott Simpson equalised in the 34th minute, Worthing hit straight back through their own Simpson. Chipstead's Aaron Smith went off after collecting his second yellow card but the depleted visitors drew level again in the 84th minute through Wayne Grizzle. It ended in tears for both sides for, after Rebels grabbed their late winner, they were also reduced to ten as Luke Denton was dismissed.

The performance of the day came from Ashford Town, who came from two goals down to beat Horsham YMCA 3-2 and move off the foot of the table. It was their second successive win after going without one since mid-October, a run of 14 games. A foul on Terry Dodd allowed Michael Hockett to give YMCA the lead from the spot seven minutes before half-time and Dodd himself made it 2-0 three minutes after the break. It was the 65th minute before Mark Lovell opened Ashford's account and he headed the equaliser with eight minutes left. Ashford were then awarded a penalty of their own. Their reliable spot-kicker Mitch Sherwood had missed his last one but he kept the duty and duly fired the winner.

Ashford, who still have 12 home games to play, moved above Whitstable on goal difference and to within a point of Eastbourne Town. Both those clubs fell victim to frozen pitches, with Whitstable's visit to Whyteleafe and Eastbourne's trip to Chatham being called off, as was Leatherhead's home game against Walton & Hersham.

Metropolitan Police made it four wins on the trot by thumping Dulwich 4-0 at Imber Court. They were two up in 11 minutes with headers from Scott Smith and Craig Carley, who has rejoined the club from Merstham. The other two came in the last 13 minutes, substitute Craig Wilkins netting with his first touch before Gary Drewett completed the scoring.

Merstham did not miss Carley; they also hit four at home to record only their second win in 12 outings. Gavin Gordon, signed from Worthing to replace him, headed the only goal of the first half. Tom Tsangarides levelled for visiting Ramsgate nine minutes after the interval, the first of four goals in 13 minutes. Billy Marshall and Neil Lampton put Merstham 3-1 up before Gary Mickelborough pulled one back. Gordon had the last word, rolling the ball into an empty net after Ramsgate keeper Sam Mott had gone forward for a late free-kick.

Youth League

It has been an unusual week in the Ryman Youth League, which has been as badly hit by bad weather as the senior competition. Seven Youth League games took place, as well as three in the Lucas Fettes Cup, while only six senior midweek matches were completed.

The highest-scoring fixture took place in the West Division, where two clubs without a league victory met at Harrow. The hosts scored twice in two early minutes to open up a 2-0 lead at home to Walton & Hersham, fell behind by half-time and then netted twice in one late minute to clinch their first win by the odd goal in seven. Ryan Toddington and Romaine Walker shared the Harrow goals, while Jake Flatman, Chaz Goodchild and George Griffiths were on target for Walton. Hayes & Yeading beat Staines 2-1 in the other match in this division, Mark Goodman getting their winner with 16 minutes left.

Central Division leaders Tooting went down 1-0 at home to unbeaten Sutton, Joshua Gallagher scoring after 15 minutes, while Nick Stevenson and Lance Hillman struck in the last five minutes as Kingstonian, who are also unbeaten, saw off Carshalton 2-0.

Bottom club Welling came within eight minutes of doubling their East Division points total before Tom Skelton hit the only goal of the game for hosts Bromley. Brett Milham scored twice for Tonbridge in their 2-2 draw at home to Tilbury.

The only game in the South Division went the way of Eastbourne Town, who came from behind to win 2-1 at Worthing and boot their hosts out of second place. Callum Holles grabbed the last-minute decider.

Maidstone had to surrender home advantage to Ramsgate in the Lucas Fettes Cup but made light of the handicap to breeze into the third round with four unanswered goals. Not surprisingly, Nathan Faulkes – who was 18 at the weekend - scored two of them. He has hit the net 14 times in their five league games and he also scored one goal in each of the five FA Youth Cup matches.

Croydon Athletic went through with a 4-1 victory at Merstham. The consolation goal came from Matt Rains, an appropriate name for this week. Also through are Brentwood, 3-1 winners over Wingate. Tom Poole, James Norcott and Ollie Dingli scored for a Brentwood side who had also played the previous day.

GODALMING TOWN FC

The appeal by Godalming Town Football Club against the decision of the Ryman Football League to deduct three points from their playing record for playing a player, Glenn Stanley, whilst under suspension against Merstham on Saturday, 19th September, 2009 was heard by an Appeal Board of the Football Association on Tuesday, 16th February. Godalming Town had won the game 3-1, and Stanley had come on as a substitute with 18 minutes of the match remaining.

The decision of the Appeal Board was to dismiss the appeal by the club, a decision that is final and binding, and withhold the club's appeal deposit. The three points have now been deducted from the record of the Club.

CLUB GOSSIP

CARSHALTON ATHLETIC FC

The board of Carshalton Athletic Football Club have announced that terms have been agreed with Francis Vines to relinquish his role as first team manager along with Steve Richardson as first team coach. Their commitments and efforts to the club have never been in question but the results on the pitch have made their positions untenable. The Club would like to thank Frank and Steve and wish them both the best in the future.

Ian Hazel will be taking over the first team management role until the end of the season.

KINGSTONIAN FC

This promotion covers the following Ryman Premier Division matches at Kingsmeadow Stadium:
