

RYMAN FOOTBALL LEAGUE – WEEKLY NEWS AND MATCH BULLETIN

Season 2009-2010 No: 31 - : - 15th March 2010

LEAGUE NEWS

SPORT RELIEF

Member Clubs in the Ryman Football League will be supporting next weekend's Sport Relief event, which has Theo Paphitis, the chairman of Ryman as a Sport Relief Ambassador. Clubs will again be playing matches on that weekend with the distinctive red footballs, used so successfully with last year's Comic Relief fund raising, and taking a red bucket collection at their next home match.

The money Ryman will raise through Sport Relief will be used to help vulnerable people facing incredibly tough lives, both at home in the UK and in the world's poorest countries. Sport Relief 2010 will be focusing on street and working children and malaria. In the UK, the focus will be on local projects, looking at issues which affect people around you.

In the build up to the Sport Relief weekend (March 19th-21st), Ryman Chief Executive Kypros Kyprianou and three of his colleagues – Operations Director Terry Maywood, Ecommerce Director Andy Harding and Senior Buyer Hans Ziebeck – will be cycling from Stockley in Middlesex to their head office in Crewe. That's 165 miles of grind when the four of them will show their true grit and determination. Pity the one who dares lag behind! While they all like to exercise, they are complete amateurs and are literally going the extra mile for Sport Relief.

They aim to complete the 165 miles (assuming they don't get lost and don't have to cycle around too many pot holes) in two days over 17th and 18th March.

The Sport Relief weekend takes place from Friday 19th March to Sunday 21st March, including a night of Sport Relief TV on BBC One on the Friday that will show a film of the Dragons in Kenya.

Ryman is backing Sport Relief this year, a sister campaign to Red Nose Day which they supported last year by raising £500,000. Both campaigns are organised by Comic Relief, which aims to transform the lives of those living tough lives across the UK and the world's poorest countries.

Theo Paphitis recently returned from the most poverty-stricken area of Kenya with fellow Dragons Duncan, Deborah and James. He said, "We saw the positive impact of money raised through Sport Relief so I am more determined than ever to raise loads of cash. The experience was completely humbling. It's great to know that the money raised will transform the lives of those in desperate need across the UK and world's poorest countries."

THE CHAMPIONSHIP MANAGER CUP

The Final of this season's Championship Manager Cup, between Leatherhead and Croydon Athletic or Wealdstone, will be played on Wednesday, 24th March 2010 at the Metropolitan Police Football Club, kick-off 7.45 p.m.

The Football Association have appointed Lee Collins (Woking) to referee the Final, with Ian Fissenden (Gillingham) and Simon Finnigan (Shepway, Maidstone) as the assistant referees. Nigel Lugg (Chipstead) will be the Fourth Official.

WEEKEND REVIEW

Premier Division

Tooting & Mitcham United fired themselves back into the Premier Division play-off hunt on Saturday with a 3-1 home victory over leaders Dartford. They defended Simon Parker's eighth-minute goal for much of the game and then, as Darts pushed forward in the last ten minutes, Paul Vines struck twice to clinch the points and take his season's tally to 23. Allan Tait managed a consolation goal for Darts, who still have a ten-point lead.

Sutton, the latest occupants of second place thanks to a ten-match unbeaten run, sent Waltham Abbey back to the foot of the table with a 2-1 win at Capershots. A Bradley Woods-Garness penalty broke the deadlock after 56 minutes and Karim El-Salahi added another. A miskick by keeper Kevin Scriven allowed Billy Holland to rekindle Abbey's hopes with 11 minutes left, but their late efforts to snatch a point were in vain.

Kingstonian slipped to third despite fighting back from 2-0 down to draw 2-2 in a strange affair at Wealdstone. Carl Wilson-Denis equalised in the 89th minute – 84 minutes after he had started the comeback! Stones were two up in three minutes through Danny Spendlove and a Chris O'Leary header. Wilson-Denis immediately replied and how there was no further scoring for so long, despite a host of chances at both ends, remains a mystery. Wealdstone stay in sixth place, two points short of a play-off spot but with games in hand over everyone except Dartford.

Hastings hung on to fourth spot despite a 3-2 defeat at Ashford (Middx). Scott Harris scored two goals, both set up by brother Warren, in the last five minutes of the first half but the visitors were level by the midpoint of the second period. Sam Adams had a shot helped in by Ashford's Joe McNerney and Ade Olorunda punished a defensive muddle. McNerney had the last word, netting the winner on 79 minutes.

Greg Morgan's goal after 22 minutes was enough to keep Boreham Wood in fifth place with a 1-0 home victory over Harrow.

Margate climbed off the bottom of the table with their second successive win, 2-1 at Billericay, and it was Leroy Huggins, their midweek capture from VCD, who made it two goals in two games with the 90th minute decider for a side reduced to ten men after only 15 minutes when John Keister was dismissed. Nick Barnes put the ten men ahead with a 48th minute penalty, then conceded the spot-kick from which Simon Thomas equalised 19 minutes later.

The other teams in the bottom four collected a point apiece. A thumping volley into his own net by Lewis Dunk left Bognor trailing at home to Aveley after 21 minutes but free-scoring striker Martin Tuohy missed several chances to clinch it for the Essex side and Richard Hudson saved the day for the Rocks with a 79th minute penalty. Millers almost snatched it at the death when Ryan Doyle's free-kick hit a post.

Carshalton, the other side in the drop zone, held out for a 0-0 home draw with Hendon after losing Karl Murray to a red card just before the interval. Before that, the bar denied former Ashford forward Byron Harrison his 20th goal of the season on his Carshalton debut.

Two teams just above the danger zone, Maidstone and Cray, shared the points in a 1-1 draw at the Homelands. George Porter's deflected shot gave Cray a half-time lead and only six minutes were left when defender Peter Hawkins rescued the hosts.

It was a mixed day for Canvey's top scorer James Rowe as his side went down 3-1 at revived Tonbridge. Two goals in four minutes just before the half-hour, from Kirk Watts and Paul Booth, put Angels in command but Rowe pulled one back before half-time, his 21st of the season, and was twice denied an equaliser only by the excellence of home keeper Lee Worgan. Rowe then collected his second yellow card with two minutes left and Jamahl Hughes promptly fired the clincher.

Horsham, favourites for a play-off place only ten days earlier, slipped further out of contention as they suffered their fourth successive 2-1 defeat. This time it was at Hornchurch, where Sam Page turned Michael Spencer's cross into his own net to give Urchins a lead which Mark Knee wiped out by half-time. Spencer was again the provider for Rikki Burbridge's winner on the hour.

Division One North

The promotion picture in Division One North looks by far the clearest of any of the three divisions after Saturday's games.

Lowestoft, seven points clear again after their recent blip, look certain to claim the title and the four sides behind them, Concord, East Thurrock, Enfield Town and Wingate & Finchley, are clear favourites for the play-off places. Thamesmead slipped out of the top five on Saturday and, although they are only a point behind Wingate, they have played two games more, as have seventh-placed VCD. Only Northwood, nine points adrift with three games in hand over Wingate, seem to have a chance of intruding into the play-off picture unless one of the leading group suffers a startling collapse of form.

Lowestoft chalked up a 4-1 home victory over Waltham Forest, though it might have been tighter had Forest not had Robert Carter sent off at 2-1. Jamie Godbold gave the Trawlerboys an early lead and Gary Nolan added a penalty before Danny Gabriel, also with a penalty, pulled one back seven minutes before the break. With Forest down to ten, Nolan claimed his 27th goal of the season with 16 minutes left and Gary Holt wrapped it up.

Two of the top five met at Concord and Enfield gained a 1-1 draw in a game that failed to reach any great heights. Danny Heale, scorer of over 250 goals for the Canvey club, ended a barren spell with his first since mid-December on the half-hour, with Mark Kirby replying in the 62nd minute.

Sam Higgins took his league-leading goals total to 27 with a double as East Thurrock leapt three places to third, beating Potters Bar 4-1 at Rookery Hill. It took his tally to 29 in all competitions, also the league's best. Not bad for a man who joined the club only in October. His 16th minute opener was something of a fluke, the ball hitting him on the back of the head as he stooped. Lee Cornhill and Kye Ruel made it 3-0 by the interval and, although Joe O'Brien pulled one back ten minutes into the second half, Rocks were never in danger and Higgins struck again with ten minutes left.

Wingate maintained their unbeaten record in 2010 but were held to a goalless home draw by Maldon.

Thamesmead dropped out of the top five with a 2-1 home defeat by Great Wakering. Lee Barnett hit the Wakering bar before the visitors opened up a two-goal half-time lead through Dan Trenkel and Rob Whitwell. Andy Constable missed the chance to pull one back when his 75th minute penalty was saved by Louis Godwin-Green and, although Scott Mulholland did find the net three minutes later, Wakering held out.

VCD romped to a 3-0 victory at Cheshunt, all the goals coming in the first 22 minutes. Uchechi Ibemere claimed the first and last of them, with Jason Barton nabbing the second. Northwood were relieved to escape with a 1-1 draw at Heybridge, for whom Reece Morgan missed a late penalty. Hugo Figueiredo put the Woods ahead after 18 minutes, Perry Sansford replied eight minutes later, and that was that.

At the other end of the table, any hopes Harlow might have had of a miracle escape, following their midweek victory, were squelched by a 2-0 home defeat against Tilbury. Chris Taylor scored the opener after nine minutes and the match was effectively settled ten minutes after the break when Bradley Barnes converted a penalty for a foul by Danny Chapman, who was sent off.

Leyton are out of the bottom two after their 2-2 draw at Ilford. Ivo Ginev put them ahead soon after half-time but the Foxes hit back through Troy Hewitt and, in the 85th minute, Jarreau McCarthy who had come off the bench only a minute earlier. He then collected two yellow cards in the next eight minutes of a brief but eventful outing, and Leyton grabbed a point deep into added time through Lukman Mojeed.

Leyton, though, have played seven games more than Redbridge, who slipped below them with a 2-0 home defeat by Ware. Ryan Wade scored early and late.

Brentwood were the day's biggest winners, 4-0 at Romford. Piers Wixon's penalty was the only goal of the first half but Kris Lee, Joe Stevens and, in added time, Ben Boyce struck after the break.

Division One South

A spell of three away games in five days always looked likely to be crucial in Worthing's Division One South title bid and it's a case of so far, so good. After a 1-0 victory at Godalming on Thursday they soared to the top of the table by crushing Corinthian-Casuals 4-0 at Tolworth on Saturday. The Rebels aim to complete the away day hat-trick at lowly Walton Casuals on Monday and, since they have played more games than their title rivals, they cannot afford to slip up.

Two Ben Williamson goals in the first 23 minutes put them in command on Saturday. Any doubt about the result vanished in the 76th minute when Casuals had keeper Luke Naughton sent off and Jamie Brotherton converted the resultant penalty. Ben Johnson wrapped it up and, if there was any disappointment for Worthing, it was that Evan Archibald missed a good chance to score for the seventh successive game, which would have equalled the league's best run of the season.

Folkestone dropped to second place despite keeping yet another clean sheet. Leatherhead held out for a 0-0 draw in Kent; no mean feat, given that the game kicked off little more than 40 hours after the Tanners completed a dramatic shoot-out victory over Aveley to reach the Championship Manager Cup final.

Fleet, fifth in the table, hosted third-placed Croydon Athletic and beat them with a single goal by Nathan Smart after 32 minutes. Croydon, then, are three points behind Worthing with three games in hand while Fleet move up a place, ahead of Walton & Hersham who went down 3-1 at Whyteleafe.

The damage was done in the first half-hour as Danny Oakins set up a goal for Darren Watson and then scored himself before an Adam Broomhead own goal made it 3-0. Jeremy Charles replied for the Swans on the stroke of half-time and the second half was a tale of disallowed goals, one for Leafe and two for Walton.

Walton's defeat boosted the hopes of nearest challengers Godalming and Sittingbourne, three and four points behind them respectively and both with three games in hand. Godalming took the points at Chipstead with a lone 71st minute goal by Phil Williams, his 20th of the season, though Chipstead will feel unlucky after the woodwork kept out potential equalisers from Graeme Purdy and Nathan Green.

No such worries for Sittingbourne, who brushed aside Metropolitan Police 3-0. Hicham Akhazzan's 23rd of the season put them ahead in the 37th minute and second-half goals followed from Karl Dent and Nick Reeves, a penalty.

The relegation struggle could hardly be tighter, with just one point covering the bottom four. Walton Casuals, though at the top of that group, look to be the team in trouble; they have played several more games than two of their rivals and have not won this year. On Saturday they suffered a comprehensive 4-1 home defeat by fellow-strugglers Ashford, well placed to survive after winning four of their last six. Peter Rapson replied to Laurence Harvey's opener for Ashford, who regained the lead a minute before the interval though Tom Murphy and went 3-1 up when Harvey scored again soon after the restart. A late Mitch Sherwood penalty supplied the fourth.

Bottom club Eastbourne Town moved to within a point of the other trio with a vital 3-1 home win over Whitstable, who dropped to 21st. After a goalless first half, Charlie Francis gave Eastbourne a 54th minute lead. Danny Simmons volleyed the second and Francis struck again before Dan Dolton's added-time consolation.

Steve Harper scored after 29 minutes for Burgess Hill against Dulwich and that was always likely to be enough against a Hamlet side who have lost their last five without scoring a single goal.

There were no goals at all at Horsham YMCA, where Merstham were the visitors. Tom Lawley hit the bar for the home side.

The other game in the division provided plenty of action, however. Jack Pallen gave Chatham the lead at Ramsgate, who levelled with a James Gregory free-kick before half-time and took the lead through Warren Schulz after 65 minutes. Michael Scott levelled matters again and, with three minutes left, it was Chatham who snatched a 3-2 victory with a Rob Denness strike.

Youth League

Two goals, six points: that was the week's story for Woking as they moved seven points ahead in the West Division of the Ryman Youth League with a pair of 1-0 home victories. Rob Carr was their scorer as they saw off Ashford (Middx) on Tuesday and Chris Richards was the man on the mark in Thursday's win over Wimbledon.

The other match in the division saw second-placed Hampton held to a 1-1 draw at Staines. Tom Kanek put Staines ahead in the first half, with Josh Hill replying on the hour.

Horsham YMCA achieved their first victory of the season in the South Division and, to provide extra glee, it came at the expense of local rivals Horsham, who went down by the odd goal in five. Burgess Hill came within a minute of collecting their own first win but Joseph Goodman's last-minute strike, his second goal of the game, saved hosts Leatherhead in a 2-2 draw.

Two Central Division sides, Chipstead and Whyteleafe, were also without a victory going into their game at Chipstead and it was the hosts who broke their duck with a 3-2 success. It also enabled them to swap places with their victims at the foot of the table. Twice Whyteleafe got back on to level terms but they had no answer to George Thornton's 75th minute goal.

Martel Reid-Warden and Greg Keddy were on the mark as Tonbridge took the East Division points with two unanswered goals at Bromley.

The pick of this week's three second-round ties in the Lucas Fettes Youth Cup was at Aveley, where the home side put out local rivals Tilbury 5-3. A spectacular overhead kick by Jamie Mathews gave Dockers an early lead which they held until two minutes before half-time, when quickfire goals by Ebenezer Djan and Matthew Fletcher gave Aveley an unexpected interval advantage. Adeshola Fajah made it 2-2 soon after the break but Alfie Dady restored Millers' advantage and Reece Trenter netted twice in seven minutes to clinch it, even though Kavel Daval scored Tilbury's third in between Trenter's strikes.

Josh Gallagher and Bajrush Halili put Sutton 2-0 up in 12 minutes against Worthing, who pulled one back through Shaun Charles with ten minutes left but went down 2-1. Metropolitan Police also progressed, with a 1-0 home win over Kingstonian.

1,000th GOALS

The 1,000th goal of the 2009/10 season in the Premier Division was scored midway through the first half on Saturday afternoon by Kirk Watts of Tonbridge Angels FC, when he netted in the 26th minute for his club in the match against Canvey Island FC. Tonbridge Angels went on to win the match 3-1.

This was followed by the 1,000th goal of the season in Division One South, when Tom Murphy netted in the 44th minute for Ashford Town, 4-1 winners at Walton Casuals.

Last week, on Tuesday, 2nd March, James Brown of Thamesmead Town's James Brown had scored the one thousandth goal scored in the Division One North for this season.

ISSUE 5 OF NONLEAGUENEWS24 MAGAZINE

The latest issue of NonLeague24 magazine is now on sale from shops and via clubs nationwide.

Issue 5 of the UK's only Non-League magazine is jam-packed as ever with Non-League news, views, reviews, previews and interviews from the Blue Square Premier, all the way down to Step 7.

Inside this month's dedicated Ryman League section, there's an in-depth interview with Ian Hazel, who is currently looking after team affairs at Carshalton Athletic alongside Mark Butler. Meanwhile, former QPR and Chelsea defender Tommy Cunningham explains why he brought all the 'old' players back to Harlow Town when he bought the Barrows Farm club, while Croydon Athletic's Tim O'Shea talks money and promotion.

Lining up on the 'Super Fans' terraces are supporters of Bognor Regis Town, Romford and Walton & Hersham, while there's a Q&A session with Canvey Island hit man James Rowe. Redbridge are also featured as youngster Charlie Georgiou is in the hot seat for Top of the Class, while secretary Bob Holloway talks about trying to arrange 20 games in 61 days.

There's also a comprehensive list of the latest transfers in and around the Ryman League, along with the month's News That Mattered, while the magazine's Reluctant Groundhopper pays a visit to Fleet Town.

That's in addition to several pages of match reviews and previews from across the divisions, as well as the monthly Dream Team that looks at stand-out performers from the last four weeks. There's also a round-up of the managerial merry-go-round in the last few weeks. Outside of this, there's the regular sections dedicated to the Blue Square, Zamaretto, UniBond and Step 5 leagues, plus interviews with big names like John Moncur and Dave Jones.

The monthly publication, priced at £3.95, is in shops now. Don't forget that, if you haven't done so already, your club can sign up to sell the magazine with no risk whatsoever on a sale or return basis, with £1 from each copy sold going straight to your club. Visit www.NonLeagueNews24.com for more information.
