LEAGUE NEWS

EASTBOURNE TOWN FC

It is with deep regret that the League has heard of the sudden death of Rupert Imich, Chairman of Eastbourne Town Football Club, on Saturday morning.

Our thoughts are with his family at this very sad time.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP MANAGER CUP

The Final of this season's Championship Manager Cup, between Leatherhead and Croydon Athletic or Wealdstone, will be played on Wednesday, 24th March 2010 at the Metropolitan Police Football Club, kick-off 7.45 p.m.

Wealdstone, of the Premier Division, and Leatherhead, of Division One South, will do battle at Metropolitan Police's Imber Court ground on Wednesday as they bid to become the first winners of the Championship Manager Cup and the 36th winners of the Isthmian League Cup in its various forms.

The first 35 years of the competition were bookended by a pair of Tilbury successes. The Dockers beat Croydon in the inaugural final, the only year when the competition was restricted to Division Two (now One) clubs, and repeated the trick in 2009 when they beat Harrow in the final to become only the fifth team from outside the top division to win the trophy since it was made open to all clubs in its second season.

That match was played at Staines Town, who were promoted to Blue Square South at the end of the season and thus left Horsham as the only club to have taken part in all 36 competitions. The Hornets reached the quarter-finals for the first time last season, having taken until 2007-08 to get as far as the last 16.

There has never been a final without Premier Division representation. Wealdstone preserved that record, just, when Greg Ngoyi scored a 90th minute winner against Division One South side Croydon Athletic in last week's semi-final.

The League and Cup double has been performed five times, though not since 1988. Enfield, Slough and Leytonstone-Ilford achieved the feat in successive seasons, 1980-2, and were later followed by Sutton United, who have won the competition a record four times, and Yeovil Town.

The latter, who lifted the cup in 1988, are one of four current Football League clubs with an Isthmian League Cup on their CV. The others are Wycombe Wanderers, in 1985, and Aldershot Town, in 1999, along with Dagenham & Redbridge whose respective halves, Dagenham and Leytonstone-Ilford, won the trophy in 1978 and 1982 respectively.

Aveley were the first team from the league's third level to win the League Cup, in 1989, and they were matched five years later by Chertsey Town whose 3-0 victory over Premier Division runners-up Enfield remains the biggest upset in any final.

It was 2002 before a Division One club came out on top. That was Northwood, whose achievement was repeated a year later by Yeading and last year by Tilbury. Braintree Town were the only club from Division Three to reach a final, losing to Boreham Wood in 1997.

Although, undeniably, all cup competitions are treated less seriously by many clubs in the modern era, it says much for the status of the Isthmian League Cup that 29 of its 34 'open' winners have come from the Premier Division and 18 of those finished in the top five of the table. Strangely, although five champions have achieved the double and five third-placed teams have won the trophy, only Dagenham have taken the cup as consolation for finishing runners-up in the league.

The team they beat 1-0 in that 1978 final were Leatherhead, marking the only previous appearance in the final by either of this year's contenders. Imber Court has staged one other final, in 1986 when Sutton completed the double with a 3-1 win over Uxbridge.

Only two finals have required a penalty shoot-out; the biggest victories have been by Sutton, who beat Oxford City 6-1 in 1998, and Thurrock, who defeated Dunstable 5-1 in the 2004 final which had to be held over until the start of the following season – an expedient which has been comfortably avoided this year, despite the shocking weather.

But, on the very day last week that Wealdstone won their semi-final, Tilbury completed a 2008-09 cup double when they defeated Halstead Town 3-2 in a long-delayed East Anglian Cup final! To win two trophies for the same season 345 days apart must be a record.

WEALDSTONE first entered the Isthmian League Cup in 1995, having switched from the Southern League, and were beaten 4-3 at Tooting in their first outing in the competition. They reached the last 32 the following year before crashing to a 6-0 defeat at Banstead and in 1997-98 they also let in six at that stage, going down 6-2 at home to Hitchin in a tie which produced 16 goals, the first attempt having finished 4-4 (replays were not abolished until the 2003-04 season).

They reached the last 16 for the first time in 1999-2000, losing 1-0 at home to Oxford City, and went one better two years later when they got to the quarter-finals, again going out 1-0 at home, this time to Tooting. Their run that season featured a 6-1 victory over Tilbury – after extra time!

Another quarter-final appearance in 2005-06 ended in a 3-2 defeat at Bromley, despite a goal from current Leeds star Jermaine Beckford, and in 2007-08 Stones were again denied a semi-final appearance by a 1-0 home defeat, Heybridge doing the damage on this occasion. So this was their best run even before they kicked off in their semi-final and that is surprising for a club with a proud cup history. They are one of the few to have lifted both the FA Amateur Cup (in 1966) and the FA Trophy (in 1985, when they also won the Gola League – now Conference – title and became the first side to achieve the non-League double). They reached the first round of the FA Cup this season, losing 3-2 at home to Rotherham.

As an Isthmian club they were finalists in the old Associate Members' Trophy, going down 1-0 to Leighton in 1997.

They had some good fortune in their run to this season's final, surviving a 2-1 defeat at Tonbridge in the fourth round when the home club discovered that they had fielded an ineligible player and were duly expelled.

A hat-trick by Chris Ellerbeck, his only goals of the season, fired them to a 3-1 victory over Boreham Wood in the second round. Apart from the abortive tie at Tonbridge, that will be their only meeting with a fellow Premier Division club during the competition. Next up were Metropolitan Police, who drew 2-2 at Grosvenor Vale before going out on penalties. Charlie Mpi and Greg Ngoyi scored for the Stones.

Chris O'Leary found the net in the defeat at Tonbridge before Mpi and Ngoyi were again the marksmen in the 2-1 quarter-final win at Sittingbourne. Then a single last-gasp goal by Ngoyi settled the semi-final at home to Croydon Athletic.

LEATHERHEAD: Having remained an Isthmian League club through the various boundary reshuffles of recent years, Leatherhead have taken part in every League Cup competition except the very first one, which featured only clubs from the league's lower division, and the second, when entry was voluntary and the Tanners were among a dozen clubs who declined to do so.

So their first tie was in 1976 and they lost 1-0 at Wycombe. But they gained their revenge the following season when they reached the final without conceding a goal, seeing off Molesey, Hendon, Wycombe and Boreham Wood. A single Mal Harkins goal for Dagenham accounted for them in the final at Dulwich.

Since then Leatherhead have enjoyed only intermittent success in the competition. They suffered eight defeats in the preliminary round but reached the quarter-finals in 1986, 1999, 2005 and 2007.

They are the only club to have hosted both the league's 'offshore' teams, Canvey and Newport (IoW), in League Cup ties. They have never met Wealdstone in the competition nor, surprisingly given that the draw has often been heavily regionalised, have they ever played a League Cup match at Imber Court.

This season they repeated their achievement of 1977-78 by winning their first four ties without conceding a goal, though by now, in a larger league, that was only enough to see them through to the semi-final. They almost managed that fifth clean sheet, but conceded a late goal to Aveley's Martin Tuohy and the game finished 1-1 before the Tanners won a penalty shoot-out.

Their path to the final started with a 1-0 home win over Burgess Hill, Greg Andrews getting the goal. Next up were Bognor, who went down 2-0 at Fetcham Grove thanks to Marc Elston and Tommy Hutchings. Tanners then had to hit the road for a short trip to Godalming where Elston scored the only goal of the night.

That saw Tanners through to the quarter-finals, where they chalked up a convincing 3-0 victory at Fleet. Chris Boulter, Hutchings and Kevin Terry were the scorers this time, and it was a Boulter goal which seemed likely to win the semi-final until Tuohy took the game to extra time.

WEEKEND REVIEW

Premier Division

The Ryman League's biggest crowd of the season turned up at Princes Park on Saturday and watched Dartford take another step towards the Premier Division title. Their home form returned in front of 1,501 spectators who saw them beat Maidstone 3-0. Still ten points clear at the top, they can start counting down to the championship. They need 15 more points and have ten games to play.

Dartford's recent home form has been patchy but Danny Dafter eased their nerves with an 11th minute opener and his former East Thurrock teammate Lee Burns added another on 34 minutes, becoming the second Premier Division marksman to reach 20 league goals. Ryan Hayes completed the scoring with eight minutes left and Stones were to suffer a further blow when Roland Edge was sent off for bringing down Rob Haworth.

Simon Huckle headed second-placed Kingstonian into a 17th minute lead at home to Hornchurch and they went on to win 2-0, John Fletcher potting the second three minutes after half-time. Ks, who had Bashiru Alimi sent off towards the end, are now four points clear of Sutton, who were held to a 0-0 home draw by Bognor but have two games in hand. Another outstanding display by Bognor keeper Anthony Ender secured the point for his side.

Ade Olorunda's 20th goal in all competitions came on the stroke of half-time and was enough for Hastings to see off visitors Wealdstone.

The Sussex club reclaimed fourth place from Boreham Wood, who went down 2-0 at Aveley. It was a bad first half for the visitors, who survived a penalty when Ryan Doyle hit the bar but lost Jamie Richards to a straight red card after 36 minutes. Steve Butterworth put the home side ahead five minutes later and Ryan Edgar tapped in the second after 63 minutes. Aveley shot up to sixth, four points behind their victims with two games in hand. Wealdstone are on the same points tally and have played one fewer game than the Millers.

Tonbridge and Tooting are also on the 48-point mark, though the Angels have played two more games than Wealdstone, and Tooting two more than that. An early header by Lee Minshull set Tonbridge on their way to their 3-1 victory at Harrow. Phil Starkey got the second with a deflected shot at the end of the first half and Adam Burchell made it three before Kurt Morlese managed an injury-time consolation.

Paul Vines gave Tooting a half-time lead at Canvey with his 24th of the season but Gabriel Fanibuyan levelled matters on the hour and Richard Halle headed home Jay Curran's cross in the 90th minute to give the islanders a 2-1 win.

All the bottom five picked up points, the big winners being Billericay. Two unanswered first-half goals by Danny Charge earned three points at Horsham and the Essex boys moved up a place, ahead of Maidstone who are themselves four points clear of the relegation zone.

The key match at that end of the table was at Margate, who drew 1-1 with fellow-strugglers Carshalton. Byron Harrison took his season's haul to 20 with his first goal since joining the Robins from Ashford, giving them a 24th minute lead. Margate replied with a sizzling effort by Sam Jones with 17 minutes left.

But the point was not enough to prevent Margate slipping back to the foot of the table. Waltham Abbey climbed above both them and Bognor with a 2-0 victory at Hendon. Marc Sontag hit the bar for the visitors in the first half and they went ahead five minutes after the break with a James Elmes penalty. Billy Holland made sure, pouncing on a defensive muddle. Cray kept themselves well clear of trouble with a 1-0 home win over Ashford (Middx). After several missed chances, the goal eventually came midway through the second half from Rob Quinn.

Division One North

Saturday's fixtures may well have been the decisive ones in the race for the top places in Division One North. The top five all won and their three closest pursuers were all beaten.

The pick of the games, and one that counted on both sides of the ledger, was at Northwood. The home side still had hopes of a play-off spot, lying eighth but with games in hand, and it looked good for them as they took a 2-0 lead at home to third-placed East Thurrock in the first 15 minutes thanks to Kyle Matthews' first two goals of the season. It stayed that way until six minutes after the interval, when the league's top scorer Sam Higgins took his season's haul to 31 with a deflected free-kick and ignited a burst of three goals in seven minutes. Kye Ruel and Max Cornhill were also on target as Rocks turned the game on its head. A Michael Peacock own goal in the 71st minute seemed to have settled the outcome but Matthews quickly completed his hat-trick and Rocks were left to hang on for their 4-3 victory.

VCD, in seventh place, had to test themselves against leaders Lowestoft and found themselves a goal down after five minutes when Matt Nolan netted his 28th of the season, a penalty after Joe Francis was fouled. Jamie Godbold made it 2-0 just after the hour mark and the Trawlerboys went home with their seven-point lead over Concord intact. Concord themselves cruised to a 3-0 win at Waltham Forest. All the goals came in the first half, a Michael Begg double sandwiching Lyle Taylor's 29th of the campaign.

A 31st-minute header by Mark Kirby was all Enfield Town needed to see off Heybridge at Brimsdown, thanks to some fine goalkeeping by Darren Bonfield, while the other team in a play-off spot, Wingate & Finchley, made it 15 games without defeat with a 2-1 success at Brentwood. The home side hit the post through Richard Priest before goals by David Laird and James Edgerley gave Wingate a 2-0 half-time lead. Daniel Neilsen gave Brentwood vain hope with an own goal in the 66th minute.

Thamesmead, in sixth place, are now five points adrift and have played more games than the teams above them. An early penalty by Ryan Wade accounted for them at Ware, though they had the upper hand for the rest of the game.

The big result at the other end of the table came at Maldon, where Redbridge won 3-0 to chalk up their first victory since 12th November and move above Leyton, out of the bottom two. All the goals came in an 11-minute burst, starting in the 22nd minute when Bobby Port headed home a corner from Aussie debutant Jack Petrie. Alf Dickinson made it 2-0, also heading home a corner, and another new boy, Craig White, pounced for the third when home keeper Jack Smelt could only parry Port's deflected free-kick.

It was the ideal confidence-booster for Redbridge at the start of a spell of five games in nine days, the first two of them crucial home matches against the side above them in the table, Ilford, on Tuesday followed by Leyton on Thursday.

Leyton, meanwhile, went down 2-0 at home to bottom club Harlow. The Hawks hit the woodwork twice before goals in the last six minutes of the first half from Emmanuel Osei and Fiston Manuella did the damage. It was Harlow's third win in four games and they are now within eight points of Leyton with a game in hand.

Lee Hodges blasted a spectacular last-minute equaliser for Tilbury at home to Cheshunt. The Dockers had taken the lead with a 16th minute penalty by Jamie Wallace but Cheshunt equalised six minutes later through Bradley Stamp. Tilbury missed another penalty after the interval and a superb goal by Matt Thomson put Cheshunt ahead, only for Hodges to top his effort by firing home from 30 yards to make it 2-2.

There was a late goal at Potters Bar, too. Chris Thomas scored in the 89th minute to give Romford a 2-1 victory. Paul Kavanagh's 11th minute penalty gave the visitors a lead which lasted less than a minute before Jordan Watson levelled it again. Joe Gardner scored after seven minutes for Great Wakering against Ilford and Neil Richmond completed a 2-0 home victory with his 20th of the season in the 74th minute.

Division One South

Croydon Athletic went to the top of Division One South on Saturday, though not in the most convincing fashion. They struggled to a 1-0 home win over bottom-but-one Walton Casuals. Gareth Williams hit a post early in the game and it was the 65th minute before Rory Hill scored the all-important goal. Williams should have made it two with a penalty, but hit a post again.

Croydon lead on goal difference from Worthing, who were the victims of yet another late Folkestone winner in the division's big match at Woodside Road. For once, though, it was not 1-0 to the Kent side. It looked as if it would be after Josh Vincent gave them a 16th minute lead, but Rebels eventually equalised in the 84th minute when Jamie Brotherton fired home a free-kick after Liam Dickson received his second yellow card for the offence. The ten men were not finished and James Everitt gave them a 2-1 victory with an injury-time penalty. Worthing have played three games more than Croydon and one more than Folkestone, who are a point behind the leading duo.

Those three look certain to claim play-off places, at worst, and Fleet took a major step towards clinching their own berth as they came from behind to win 2-1 at Chatham. Matt Solly's penalty on the half-hour gave Chatham the lead against the run of play and Darren Campbell equalised four minutes before the break. The scales tipped Fleet's way when the hosts had Ray Powell sent off midway through the second half and Campbell hit the winner with 11 minutes left.

Two goals by the much-travelled Liam Wright, including a last-minute equaliser, meant that Walton & Hersham could manage only a 2-2 home draw with Chipstead. Martin Grant put the Swans ahead in the 29th minute with his 26th goal of the season, following up when Adam Broomhead's header hit a post. Wright replied two minutes later with his first goal of a campaign in which he has now done duty with five Ryman League clubs. Junior Kaffo restored Walton's lead early in the second half but Chipstead collected a point they deserved when Wright struck a post and buried the rebound.

Walton stay fifth but there are now four teams who can overtake them by winning games in hand. One of them, Godalming, will feel they should have done so on Saturday after Adam Bernard gave them a first-half lead. But visiting Ramsgate took control after the break and Gary Mickelborough levelled matters with a 73rd minute penalty. Another Gary, Lockyer, fired home from long range with three minutes left and Ramsgate won 2-1, leaving the hosts still a point behind Walton, though with three games in hand.

Leatherhead, Burgess Hill and Sittingbourne also have hopes of breaking into the top five. Two of them met at Fetcham Grove and it was Leatherhead who came out on top, beating Sittingbourne 4-2. The Brickies were reduced to ten men as early as the 23rd minute when keeper Deren Ibrahim was sent off for upending Greg Andrews in the box. Outfield player Billy Manners took over and watched happily as Andrews missed the penalty. Jack MacLeod beat the stand-in two minutes later but Sittingbourne rallied to draw level through Nick Reeves in the 32nd minute. Andrews restored Tanners' lead two minutes after the interval only for the visitors to nab a quick equaliser again, Hicham Akhazzan's 24th goal of the season. Manners performed nobly but could not prevent MacLeod's second goal on 74 minutes. Steve Barilli made sure in added time.

The winners moved up to seventh and Burgess Hill also overtook Sittingbourne with their 1-0 win at lowly Ashford. A drab game was settled by Will Berry with four minutes left.

Chipstead, in 18th place, were the only team in the bottom five to pick up a point and are five points above the bottom two. It was as you were below them, although Eastbourne Town were not playing and so gained a game on everyone else. Whitstable stayed at the bottom, behind Walton Casuals on goal difference, after a 2-0 home defeat by Horsham YMCA. Mike Hockett scored early, Luke Gedling late.

Metropolitan Police won a scrappy midtable battle with Whyteleafe thanks to a 40th minute long-ranger by Craig Brown. Even that thought hard about crossing the line, hitting both posts first.

The other midtable affair was much more lively, with Merstham going down 3-2 at home to Corinthian-Casuals. It was Casuals' third win in four games after a run of five straight defeats, while Merstham have won only one of their last 13.

Home keeper Neale Manning conceded a penalty after nine minutes of his debut and Kane Sergeant converted. Dale Marvell's volley levelled it four minutes before half-time and there was no further scoring until the last ten minutes. Then Matt Kidson and Jamal Carr put Casuals 3-1 up, a lead they had to battle to defend in the dying moments after Gavin Gordon pulled one back.

Youth League

It has been a busy week in the Central Division of the Ryman Youth League, with several clubs playing twice in an effort to catch up with their fixtures after a host of postponements.

Among them were title favourites Sutton, who at last reached the halfway stage of their 14-match programme with a four-point week. They started with a 2-2 draw against Corinthian-Casuals, for whom Matt Robinson twice equalised in the last 13 minutes. Lewis Wilson and Bajrush Halili scored for Sutton, who followed up with a 3-0 win over leaders Croydon Athletic. Both players were on target again, along with Ope Fashore.

It was Croydon's first defeat of the season while Sutton remained unbeaten, seven points behind with four games in hand. Croydon had beaten Tooting earlier in the week with a lone goal by Scott Elgar.

Tooting were also to play again, though their home game against Carshalton finished in unfortunate circumstances, having to be abandoned with five minutes left because of a serious injury. Tooting were 3-0 up, with Elliott Phipps scoring twice, and the result may well be allowed to stand. The other game brought a second successive win for Chipstead, previously without one. Cameron Watts and Lewis Longhurst netted in their 2-1 win over Kingstonian, for whom Lance Hillman got a last-minute consolation.

Lewis Pople scored twice as South Division champions Lewes took their 100 per cent record to nine games with a 3-2 victory at bottom club Burgess Hill, still seeking their first victory. Late goals by Joshua Smith – not the first-team player of that name who moved to Whyteleafe last month – and Max Bajoux gave Leatherhead a 2-0 victory at Horsham.

All eight clubs in the West Division played, and Woking stretched their lead to eight points with a 4-2 win at Staines. Two goals in three second-half minutes by Anson Cousins effectively settled the outcome. Ashford (Middx) fought back from 2-0 down to win 3-2 at Hampton and knock their hosts out of second place. Josh Hill and Liam Jones put Hampton in a strong position but Tom Betts pulled one back just before the interval, Jack Taylor equalised and Mark Bitmead got the winner with a late penalty. Ashford are eight points behind Woking with three games in hand.

Hayes & Yeading, three points further back, have two more games in hand. Mark Goodman and Daniel Wishart were on target in their 2-0 home win over Wimbledon. Winless Walton & Hersham drew 2-2 at home to Harrow, who looked set for three points when Troy Raymond grabbed his second of the game in the 87th minute only for George Harrowell to level it as time ran out.

The only game in the East Division took Cray Wanderers to the top of the table, Alex Morgan's goal earning them a 1-0 home win over Tilbury.

Aveley became the first team to reach the last eight of the Lucas Fettes Youth Cup. They were 1-0 winners at Thamesmead in the third round with a 61st-minute goal by Ebenezer Djan. Meanwhile, the second round was finally completed on Monday, 92 days after it started. Callum Holles scored in the 85th minute to give Eastbourne Town a 1-0 victory at Tonbridge while Fleet beat Wealdstone by the odd goal in three.

CLUB GOSSIP

BOREHAM WOOD FC

Boreham Wood Football Club have announced that Dwane Lee has joined the Ryman League Premier Division club for the remaining six weeks of the season. Lee is a 30-year-old midfielder who began his career at Yeading before spending time with Aldershot Town and Exeter City.

He then picked up a Conference winners' medal with Barnet and this was followed by a year and a half spell in the Football League with the Bees. He returned to non-League football with Kidderminster Harriers and Stevenage Borough before teaming up with Johnson Hippolyte at Maidenhead United.

In 2008, he moved to Kettering Town before joining Terry Brown's AFC Wimbledon side in November of that year. He had a brief spell with Blue Square South side Bromley earlier this season.

Wood manager Ian Allinson said: "Dwane will add strength to our midfield and will be a valuable addition for the remainder of this Season, as we continue to challenge for a place in the play-offs."

GREAT WAKERING ROVERS FC

Ryan Wilkinson,, the new manager of Ryman League Division One North club Great Wakering Rovers, has swooped to land young midfielder Jack Carlisle.

Carlisle started his career as a scholar at Cardiff City. After leaving the Bluebirds in 2008 he signed for Rovers' league rivals Concord Rangers where he made 52 appearances, scoring twice.

He left Rangers earlier this season to sign for another Division One North outfit, Brentwood Town, for a short spell before joining Rovers. He is expected to go into the squad to face Ilford on Saturday.

Carlisle effectively replaces Ty Benjamin in the Rovers squad after the midfielder left to follow former boss Iain O'Connell to Ryman Premier side Margate.

HORSHAM FC

The board of directors at Premier Division club Horsham have announced that manager John Maggs has agreed to continue for at least another season in charge of the Hornets.

Maggs' current contract will expire in July and there has been speculation as to whether or not he may decide to retire. Happily, he insists he maintains his youthful enthusiasm and will relish the opportunity to continue in the role he has held for the past ten years.

Maggs said: "I really appreciate the club have asked me to continue as manager for next season. I do realise the challenge ahead and, until we finally move into a new home of our own, the main object will be to maintain our present level of football in the Ryman Premier.

"Having said that, I will always try to produce a team which competes to win football matches and be successful in both the league and cup competitions. Personally, I feel I am fit enough and have the passion and enthusiasm to give the club further successes."

Club secretary John Lines commented: "John has been a magnificent servant to Horsham Football Club for the past ten years, taking the club to the highest level in the non-League Pyramid in its history; and who can forget the incredible achievement of the FA Cup run just two seasons ago? The club and the Town itself has benefited enormously from John's management expertise and the board is absolutely delighted he has agreed to continue into 2010/11.

"The club is anticipating exciting times ahead and an additional part of John's role next season will be to add his wealth of experience to our youth set-up. It is a vital part of our future planning as an FA Charter Standard Club to encourage and develop an expanding programme of youth football in the community. We all feel that John can bring a new dimension to facilitate the expansion of youth football at Horsham FC, particularly with his organisational and coaching skills.

"Working with the existing youth team managers and coaches, we are sure his motivational approach will filter down through the age groups and encourage players at all levels and to carry through the youth ranks more local players into our senior first-team which has to be good for all concerned.

"Our supporters will be delighted with this news and I know they will show their appreciation when it comes to John's testimonial in the early part of next season."

Maggs added: "I have taken on another role at the club which is to oversee the youth teams for I believe, as do the directors, that this is the future of the club.

"I will go about this job in a very professional way and hopefully move the club forward. We all know that sharing facilities at YMCA is not ideal for either club but a major effort by directors, players, committee and supporters to see us through to our new ground is needed and we must all pull together and stay firmly together."

MARGATE FC

PREMIER Division club Margate have announced the signing of two more new players by manager Iain O'Connell while one player has left Hartsdown Park.

Midfielder Ty Benjamin has signed from the manager's previous club, Ryman Division One North side Great Wakering Rovers. He made 46 appearances and scored five goals for Rovers following his switch from Essex Senior Leaguers Southend Manor in 2008.

Also signing for the Blues is Thamesmead Town defender Tommy Osborne - a former favourite at Dartford, who had only been with the Mead for a month. He, like Benjamin, goes straight into the squad for Saturday's clash with Carshalton Athletic.

Meanwhile, leaving the club is young goalkeeper George Anderson, who has been offered a place at university and opted to focus on his studies and put his football career on hold.

WHITSTABLE TOWN FC

Whitstable Town Football Club have appointed a new caretaker manager as from Monday 21st March to replace ex manager Mark Munday. The club have appointed long serving coach Mark Lane to this position for the rest of the season.

The decision was taken at a Board meeting on Saturday 20th March after another disappointing result which found the Kent club still at the bottom of the Ryman League Division One South. It is hoped that with just ten matches to play the club can change course and get the necessary results to avoid relegation.

The Board were hoping that Mark Munday could turn results around but the last three matches have seen nine goals conceded and just one scored and they needed to act to try to resolve the situation.

The Board would like to thank Mark Munday for all his hard work and fully understand that the job had not been easy with lots of matches cancelled this season. They wish him well for the future and thank him for his commitment during his time at the club both as a player and a manager .

WINGATE & FINCHLEY FC

Wingate & Finchley Football Club are holding a second Taster Day on Tuesday 6th April 2010, from 12:30pm-3:30pm, at their home stadium with regard to prospective intake to their FLEX (Football Learning Excellence) Scheme.

The venture has so far been a resounding success and has given the current squad the fantastic opportunity to move up into the club's Capital League (reserve) team. Many players have so far made this achievable step and are well on their way to realising the potential of becoming members of Wingate & Finchley's high-flying first team, the semi-professional club who play in the Ryman League Division One North.

Each member of the scheme is awarded an educational qualification, so FLEX also represents a unique way of gaining further qualifications whilst developing youth football.
