Macron Manager of the Month

Billericay Town enjoyed a 100 per cent record in league matches during November. They won 3-1 at Carshalton, 2-1 at home to Concord and 2-1 at Horsham, making them the only Premier Division club to go through the month without dropping a point and earning Craig Edwards the Manager of the Month prize.

John Coventry lifted the Division One North award after leading his team to maximum points in their five league matches, four of them away from home.

Three wins out of three for Bognor enabled their managerial duo of Jamie Howell and Darin Killpartrick to collect the honour in Division One South.

Macron Team Performance of the Month

Corinthian-Casuals seemed to be facing an impossible task when they visited Division

One South leaders

Leatherhead on

November 23. Casuals

were in 20th place,

having lifted themselves

off the foot of the table

only three days earlier,

while the Tanners were seven points clear at the top and the league's top scorers by some distance.

Nevertheless, it was Casuals who came out on top with a lone goal by Mu Maan, a result that was declared the Team Performance of the Month in the division.

AFC Sudbury took the award in Division One North for their 2-1 FA Trophy victory at Truro, top of the Zamaretto League's Premier Division, on 20th November. Making light of a 350-mile journey, the Suffolk club took the lead in the first half through Dave Wareham. They held it until Truro equalised with just 13 minutes left, then raised their game again for Wareham to hit an 86th minute winner.

AFC Hornchurch looked set for a long, hard season when they were thrashed 7-1 at Tonbridge on 2nd October. But it proved to be the turning point for Hornchurch, who are unbeaten in 14 games since then. Like Sudbury, they travelled to the south-west in the FA Trophy and ran up a convincing 3-0 victory at Zamaretto League side Bideford to claim the Team Performance of the Month for the Premier Division.

Sells Goalkeeping Academy Good Hands

Experienced goalkeeper Steve Northwood was released by Whyteleafe during October and sent an e-mail to every club in the league offering his services. It was Grays Athletic who responded and they have had no cause to regret it. Indeed, by conceding only one league goal during November, Northwood has won the Good Hands award for Division One North.

Harrow Borough started the month with a brave performance against Chesterfield in the FA Cup, going down 2-0 after goalkeeper Nicky Jupp had defied the League Two leaders for more than 70 minutes. They have since played four Premier Division games without defeat and conceded only three goals, making Jupp the Good Hands winner.

Leatherhead's Chico Ramos takes the Division One South prize. Although his team have been better known for their goalscoring exploits, they also kept a tight defence in November when they let in two goals in five league games.

WEEKEND REVIEW

By Peter Butcher – Ryman League Communications Administrator

Wealdstone and Ramsgate were the only two Ryman League clubs to beat the freeze on Saturday, and both were rewarded with three points.

Stones beat Aveley 2-0 in the Premier Division on a perfect Grosvenor Vale pitch which had escaped the heaviest of the snow, and it could have been more as the hosts outplayed a Millers side featuring six of the eight new signings made by recently-appointed manager Carl Griffiths. The writing was on the wall as early as the sixth minute, when Peter Dean curled a shot against the bar. Greg Ngoyi had already found the net only to be ruled offside, a fate he was to suffer again later in the half.

The pattern of the match was set, with Stones carving open the visiting defence with some lovely passing, much of it orchestrated by masterful midfield man Kieron Forbes, only to fail to finish off the approach work. They came closest by accident, when Aveley keeper David McCartney was inches away from dragging a low cross by Chris O'Leary into his own net.

Stones goalie Jonathan North had to dive to save a shot by Sherwin Stanley in the 41st minute, the first time he had been troubled, and it looked as if the half would finish goalless. It did, but not before some late drama. With the clock showing 44min 50sec, a careless lunge by Spencer Harrison upended Stones winger Danny Spendlove in the box and referee Steven Rea had the easiest of decisions to make, duly pointing to the spot. Then, after consulting his assistant, he showed Harrison a red card which seemed harsh given that Spendlove had lost control of the ball before the foul.

The deadlock was broken in the 56th minute when Forbes, who had scored his first goal for Stones five days earlier, found himself free in the box and beat McCartney at his near post with a low drive. Alan Massey was a bootlace away from converting a James Hammond cross before Forbes sent Ngoyi clear to make it 2-0 in the 79th minute.

Ross Wall forced another save from North and Millers were unlucky not to be awarded a penalty when Luke Stanley was tripped in the box only for a free-kick to be given just outside the area for an earlier foul. A few decisions might have gone against the visitors but they could have no complaints at the result and were lucky to escape so lightly.

Hard work by the Ramsgate groundsman and his helpers enabled their Division One South game against Eastbourne to go ahead. It was the only match to take place in Kent and a Simon Pettit hat-trick produced a 3-1 home win. Eastbourne played three-quarters of the match with ten men due to the late arrival of some of their players who had elected to travel by train.

The home side made the most of their advantage and dominated the game with some fine passing football. The first real chance fell to skipper Ben Laslett, who latched onto a cross from the left by the lively Paul Axon, but saw his shot blocked by a quick-thinking defender.

Further chances followed for the Rams but it was not until the 20th minute that they got on the scoresheet, when Mitchell Sherwood's deep cross from the right was half-cleared to Pettit, who volleyed home from 25 yards.

The visitors started the second half more brightly but Rams were soon back in charge and Pettit doubled the score in the 53rd minute after a cross from the right had been missed by a number of players on both sides. Pettit completed his hat-trick six minutes later, meeting Sherwood's cross with a fine downward header just inside the near post.

Eastbourne finally brought on an 11th man in the 70th minute and were left wondering what might have been when they scored within five minutes through Peter Cooper, who bundled in a loose ball.

Rams remained on top, however, and 17-year-old substitute George Amber almost made it four with a volley from outside the area.

CHANGING ENDS

The League has been approached by Mike Bayly, a member of Wingate & Finchley Football Club and author of football book Changing Ends, to obtain contributions from fans of the strangest things seen and heard at games over the years for a new book he is preparing.

Mike is donating a percentage of any profits to the Mencap Charity and all Clubs are asked to publicise this through their matchday programmes and invite contributions to be sent to Mike at mikebayly@btinternet.com
