

MIDWEEK UPDATE

Season 2011/12 No 04 :-: 23rd September 2011

ALL THE ACTION

By Peter Butcher – Ryman League Communications Administrator

Division 1

THERE were only two league matches in midweek, one in each section of Division One on Tuesday.

Second-half goals by Bradley Killick and Ashley Proberts gave Thamesmead a 2-0 home win over Enfield Town in Division One North while, in the South section, Ramsgate drew 0-0 with Walton & Hersham.

FA Cup

THE major midweek action was in the FA Cup, with five Ryman League clubs involved in replays.

Four of them made it to the second qualifying round - and all four of them had to come from behind to do it.

Scott Chaplin's goal seven minutes from the end of extra time saw Needham Market through 4-3 after a thrilling game at Ely on Tuesday.

Dan Thrower put Needham ahead in the third minute but they were 2-1 down before the 20-minute mark. An own goal levelled it on 27 minutes but Ely regained the lead almost at once.

Darcy De'ath scored the only goal of the second half, tying it up again in the 62nd minute, and then Chaplin stepped up to book an attractive home game against Nuneaton, fifth in Conference North, on Saturday week.

A goal down at half-time in their replay at home to Cambridge City, Maldon battled back to win 2-1 thanks to two goals in nine minutes either side of the hour mark, from Joe Pearman and Billy Burgess.

Godalming conceded an early goal away to Wessex League side Moneyfields but rallied to win 3-1.

Dan Read equalised on the half-hour, Scott Harris put them ahead after 65 minutes and Read clinched it with a late goal. G's will also be at home to Conference North opposition, Worcester City.

Oddly enough, the only side to go out were also the only side who never fell behind!

Brentwood kept their fifth successive clean sheet in a 0-0 home draw with Hemel Hempstead but were beaten 4-2 on penalties.

Hemel's Lewis Toomey headed against the bar in the fourth minute and that was as close as either side came in a game of few chances until the last kick of extra time, when Danny May hit a Brentwood post with a free-kick from fully 40 yards.

Brentwood were left to rue the first five minutes of the second half, when Ryan O'Rawe wasted their best chance of the night by heading over the bar, shortly followed by the dismissal of skipper Darren Blewitt who added a yellow card for a foul to an earlier one for dissent.

Home keeper Nick Bussey saved Brentwood's first and fourth penalties, taken by Andy Tomlinson and Richard Ketchell, in the shoot-out while the visitors converted all four kicks to earn themselves a trip to Lowestoft.

Horsham manager Justin Luchford had his brother Dane to thank as Hornets came from 2-0 down to beat Lingfield 4-2 in a hard-fought replay on Wednesday.

Nicky Forster, scorer of 190 goals in over 600 Football League appearances, had flown back from a Spanish holiday to play for the Sussex County League side and his trip looked well worthwhile when he broke clear to score with just 22 seconds on the clock.

Forster struck again in the 25th minute but signalled that he had suffered an injury and would have to be replaced.

A minute after the goal, and before the substitution could be made, Lingfield had left-back Lee Sidwell dismissed after his second wild challenge earned him his second yellow card in the space of nine minutes.

Horsham pulled a goal back with a Tony Nwachukwu penalty in the 38th minute.

But they struggled to break down their battling opponents in the second half as the county league side defended bravely even though they were without their other former Football League star, Ian Pearce.

The game was into the fifth minute of added time when Dane Luchford had a shot brilliantly saved by Joe White but was able to put away the rebound and level the scores.

Then, in the fourth minute of extra time, Luchford was on the spot again to convert a pass from Ray Freeman and give Hornets the lead for the first time.

They made sure in the 115th minute when, with most of the Lingfield side committed upfield, Luchford broke away and played a cool square pass to Nwachukwu for the winger to drive home his eighth goal of the season and seal a visit to Burnham on Saturday week.
