

MIDWEEK UPDATE

Season 2011/12 No 20 :-: 26th January 2012

ALL THE ACTION

By Peter Butcher – Ryman League Communications Administrator

Premier

THE only Ryman League game to survive the rain on Tuesday was the Premier clash between Hendon and Wealdstone at Vale Farm, which produced an entertaining 1-1 draw.

Wealdstone will feel aggrieved that Hendon were not reduced to ten men as early as the third minute.

Ryan Wharton escaped with a yellow card for fouling Richard Jolly when the deadly Stones striker was clean through on goal.

There was little to choose between the teams after that. Hendon took the lead in the dying moments of the first half when Greg Ngoyi applied the final touch to a superb defence-splitting pass by Darren Currie.

Elliott Charles missed a simple chance to make it 2-0 soon after the restart and Hendon were punished by an equaliser in the 52nd minute, a daisycutting 25-yarder from David Hicks.

A magnificent save by Berkley Laurencin, high to his left, prevented Kurtney Brooks giving Stones the lead.

That was matched in added time when Stones keeper Jonathan North did equally well to push away a low shot by Carl McCluskey.

The game attracted a crowd of 401, Hendon's best for a home league game since the corresponding fixture on the last day of the 2007-08 season.

North

GRAYS continued to find form elusive as they were held to a 0-0 home Ryman North draw by Waltham Forest on Wednesday.

It was a good performance by Forest, who had several players delayed by traffic problems on their way to the game.

Even though the kick-off was delayed by 15 minutes they had to make two late changes to their intended starting line-up.

But they gave a good account of themselves and certainly came closest to breaking the deadlock when, two minutes after half-time, Luke Stanley hit a fizzing free-kick from 25 yards which crashed against the inside of a post.

It was Grays' first point for three games and also their first point for three home games. They remain fifth in the table while Forest stay in 16th place.

Rain forced the postponement of both Ryman North games and the only scheduled Ryman South fixture on Tuesday.
